

Minorities Unite to 'Cope With Inequities'

By FRANK LAPIERRE

A new organization called B.O.N.D. has been formed in Daly City to cope with what the leaders of the group call "inequities" that exist in both the local schools and city government.

B.O.N.D. stands for Brothers (black and brown) Organized (for) Necessary Demands.

At a press conference held in the Second Baptist Church on Wellington Avenue yesterday, leaders of the group presented a list of ten demands they insist should be taken care of immediately.

Rev. Joe Nobles, chairman of B.O.N.D., said the name of the Colma Intermediate School (Jefferson Elementary School District) should be changed to Martin Luther King Jr. School in honor of the slain Negro leader.

"There are two Colma K-8 schools . . . and they are often confusing to the people," Rev. Nobles explained. "All of the black children in Daly City attend Colma Intermediate as well as the majority of the other minority junior high school students."

He said the school would have more meaning to the students if it were renamed.

Another demand made was for all teachers, administrators, counselors and custodial workers coming in contact with minority children to attend an in-service training course regarding care of "the disinherited youth of our community."

And Rev. Nobles said discretion must be exercised in calling for uniformed police on school campuses in the city "for every occasion of unrest."

The establishment of a full-time salaried position within the school districts should likewise be implemented soon to act as a liaison between schools and home. School community workers must be hired to these posts, according to Reverend Nobles.

Also another new position should be implemented within the districts—a person whose specific responsibility is in securing Federal funds available under certain categories.

Miss Cynthia S. Smallwood, vice-president of the Society of Black Culture at Serramonte High School in Daly City, accused the school districts of letting such funds "slip by."

With a person specifically responsible for researching federal grants, etc., more funds will be available, Miss Smallwood said.

Where the money for the new school positions and other programs suggested by B.O.N.D. would come from could not be answered by the new group.

There are some 843 Latin American and 669 black family units in Daly City.

Because of the displacement of many families due to renewal projects in San Francisco, more of these minorities are moving into Daly City, the group pointed out.

And while the group threatened to "make its presence known and felt" in the city, they would not reveal their strategy at Monday's meeting.

One of the first steps the group took after their first general meeting last week, in which some 122 Latin Americans and 113 blacks attended, a letter was sent to the Daly City Council, Jefferson High School District and Jefferson Elementary District outlining demands.

To date, only the Jefferson Union High School District has replied, Rev. Nobles said.

AVIATION WEEK

Midflight Selection Of San Bruno Queen

San Bruno's fourth annual salute to the aviation industry, "Aviation Appreciation Week," has been set for May 17 through the 24 by the Chamber of Commerce.

Lloyd Ghiselli, manager of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, and chairman of the Chamber's Aviation Committee, announced that the annual Chamber of Commerce program will include a scenic cocktail and hors d'oeuvre flight aboard an American Airlines Astrojet on Saturday, May 17, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

During the Chamber jet flight Miss San Bruno for 1968 will be selected from among three finalists.

The evening sunset flight down the Pacific coast will be billed as the first beauty pageant in the sky and will help emphasize San Bruno's theme as the "International Airport City."

Highlight of the week-long program will be the annual Aviation Banquet at Green Hills Country Club May 23.

Guest speaker at the banquet will be veteran aviation industry spokesman Sam Lowry, Commercial Airplane Division official for the Boeing Company.

All airlines serving San Francisco International Airport have been invited again this year to place airline travel displays in downtown San Bruno stores during the week.

Tours of major airport facilities are also scheduled and a drawing for an air vacation trip is in the planning.

The Chamber board of directors will hold their May board meeting at the Federal Aviation Administration's new computerized air traffic control center in Fremont May 14.

S.S.F. Beauty Pageantry

Still Divided

By DON GRIERSON

South San Francisco will be represented by two beauty queens again this year, with the girls to be chosen in rival pageants slated for alternate weekends in May.

Mrs. Dolly Schumacher Drew, a former "Miss South San Francisco" and director of the city's "official" beauty pageant until she and the chamber of commerce parted ways during a dispute last year, will stage her second "Miss Industrial City" pageant May 17 at El Camino High School.

The chamber of commerce-sponsored "Miss South San Francisco" pageant will be held at the same location May 24.

The winners of both pageants will be eligible to compete in next year's "Miss San Mateo County" pageant, though only "Miss South San Francisco" is eligible to enter the Fiesta Dream Girl event at the County Fair.

In fact, any girl who has a sponsor can enter the "Miss San Mateo County" pageant, though normally only one girl from each city is entered.

The current "Miss Industrial City," Bonnie Fowler, chose not to enter the county pageant for personal reasons, Mrs. Drew said, but this year's winner will likely enter the competition, which is a preliminary for the "Miss California" and the "Miss America" pageants.

Barbara Sams, a former winner of both the city and county pageants, has entered the "Miss San Mateo County" event again this year, along with current "Miss South San Francisco" Ramona Skola.

The "Miss San Mateo County" pageant will be held April 19.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Jack Flynn said members of the C of C pageant committee are presently mapping plans for the "Miss South San Francisco" event, and entries are being accepted.

Girls between the ages of 17 and 26 who are single and resident in the city are eligible to enter. (Please See Page 2, Column 5)

Tony Zidich Named to DC Commission

Daly City realtor Tony Zidich was named Monday night to succeed Wilfred R. O'Rourke on the city's Recreation Commission.

O'Rourke moved to San Jose recently and submitted his resignation after serving some ten years on the commission.

The council praised O'Rourke and called his contributions to the commission "outstanding." Zidich's was nominated for the commission by councilman Edward J. Dennis and received the unanimous backing of the other councilmen.

In addition to being a realtor in Daly City, Zidich is president of the powerful Westlake Homeowners' Improvement Association and was a member of the Citizens' Committee on the Daly City General Plan. He has been a resident of Daly City since 1957 and lives with his wife, Carole and daughter, Debbie, at

Land Rezone In San Bruno Is Approved

The San Bruno City Council Monday approved rezoning of the Avenino-Mortensen property south of Sneath Lane to allow for the two-phase construction of 1200 "Woodlake-type" apartments.

A council ordinance will allow rezoning of the acreage from administrative-research to multiple residential.

Plans of Alpha Lands, which pressed for the zoning change call for construction of some 700 apartments in the first phase, with another 500 units planned later.

NEIL CHRISTAL

San Bruno Selects A New Mayor

Neil Christal was selected as San Bruno's new mayor Monday with veteran councilman Karney Barberlan to remain as vice mayor, it was learned today.

Christal, attorney, accountant and part-time San Francisco State College instructor who will be serving his second term as mayor in four years, was named by his colleagues at an 11 p.m. caucus that followed the regular meeting of the council.

The selection was unanimous, and was made at the later hour, it is understood, because there was insufficient time at the usual 7 p.m. caucus hour.

DC Approves 2 Facilities For Elderly

The Daly City Council — with only three members attending — ran through a lengthy agenda Monday night in near record time.

Many of the items brought up during the regular session were either tabled for further study or until the full board could decide their fate.

Vice Mayor Frank P. Pacelli sat for Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lyett who is attending a League of California Cities meeting in Sacramento this week.

But the board acted swiftly on approving construction of two new facilities for the elderly: a 239-bed convalescent hospital on the northwest corner of Escuela and Cerro drives, and an 88-bed residential care unit (not a hospital) at the southeast corner of Southgate and Escuela drives.

The convalescent hospital is being built by the C.B.S. Enterprise and Developers and had been under almost weekly discussion by the developers and city council since last February. Much of the delay hinged on a report from the County Health Facilities Planning Association, which is currently mapping a general policy for such facilities countywide.

The council also approved a drive-thru type restaurant to be constructed for the Ralston Purina Company (Jack in the Box) on Mission and Price streets.

Among the items tabled for study Monday was a request to operate a mini-bike sales office and maintenance facility at 7033 Mission Street.

Councilman Edward J. Dennis moved to have the mini-bike re-

Coast Sewer Expansion Study Meet

Pacific councilmen Monday agreed to hold another study session on the controversial sewer system expansion issue, and attempt to answer "specific questions" posed by residents.

Mayor Nick Gust and council members agreed to schedule another meeting on the issue, provided specific questions are submitted in writing in advance.

"If we can provide the answers, we will," Gust said, "but there is no point in going over old ground."

Gust and other council members told Emory Lebonville, co-chairman of C.O.S.T. (citizens opposed to sewer tax) and homeowner Patrick Hagerty that the issue of whether or not the sewer service fees will be collected along with property taxes "has already been resolved."

Councilmen voted last year to have the sewer charges collected along with taxes, in spite of considerable opposition from property owners.

The principal issue to be resolved now, as I see it, is the question of where the new sewer plant will be located," Gust said.

The mayor said he is opposed to holding another public hearing on the matter "because we will have the two factions from Sharp Park and Linda Mar insisting on their same positions again."

While a federal grant application submitted several months ago indicates the new sewer plant will be located at the site of the present Sharp Park treatment plant, Gust said the matter has not been finally resolved.

"We had to specify a single location in order to file the application for federal funds," he said. (Please See Page 2, Column 1)

Bruno Rejects Haul Permit, OKs 2 Others

Trucking permits were issued to two firms, but another was rejected by the San Bruno City Council Monday night.

Renewal of existing trucking permits were granted to Pacific Cement and Aggregate Company, and Aggregates Trucking Co., both East Bay-based firms, who specialize in delivery-type hauling.

The council restricted their trucking activities within the San Bruno city limits to between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m.

On a 3-2 vote, the Plombo Construction Company was denied a hauling permit.

Councilmen Maurice Hamilton and George Corey voted to grant the permit, which would have allowed Plombo to haul dirt to the airport on a zig-zag route in the northern part of the city.

The route Plombo requested, with 12 trucks an hour utilizing it, was El Camino to Sneath Lane within the Tanforan area, to reach Huntington, with a left off Huntington onto San Bruno Avenue; thence to the airport.

One stipulation would have been that Plombo be required to hire a police officer to control traffic at the busy San Bruno-Huntington corner.

Councilmen Karney Barberlan, Neil Christal and Mayor George Ingham voted to reject the proposal.

Plombo now will haul straight south on El Camino to Millbrae Avenue.

5 PER CENT

Police, Fire Salary Hikes are Approved

By DON GRIERSON

Pacific councilmen approved a five per cent pay raise for both firemen and policemen in the city Monday, after Assistant City Manager James

Wayne reported both departments and the manager's office have reached agreement on the first stage of the long-pending salary adjustments.

Police representatives turned down the five per cent offer two weeks ago and insisted that the council act immediately on the issue of pay parity between firemen and policemen.

However, they have had a change of heart regarding the initial five per cent increase, according to city officials, and agreed to accept the pay raise, retroactive to January 1, 1968, and continue negotiations on proposed further increases.

Policemen have insisted in the past that the council follow the recommendation of the personnel advisory commission, which several months ago proposed a 10 per cent pay raise for police department personnel and only five per cent for firemen.

Commissioners cited differences in responsibilities between the two departments.

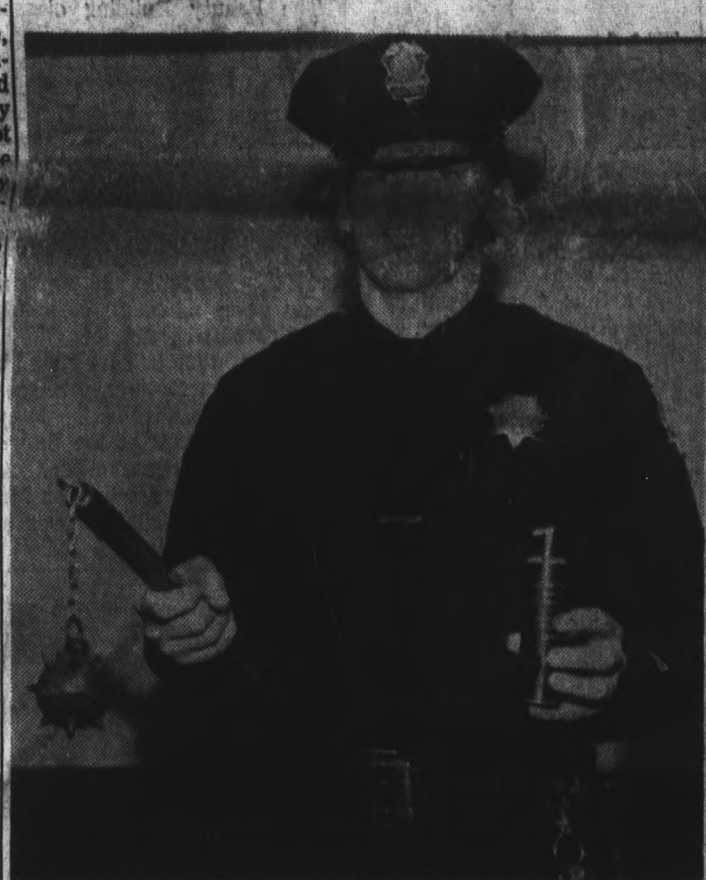

Firemen vigorously opposed the proposed differential in pay, and the city offered a compromise package creating a new job classification within the fire department several weeks ago.

The compromise plan, considered acceptable by firemen but opposed by police personnel, calls for establishment of a "firefighter engineer" classification for experienced firemen.

Under the proposal, firemen in the new classification would be paid at a higher rate than personnel with less experience.

Department spokesmen have indicated most of the present fire department employees would be placed in the new classification if the plan is adopted, and newly employed firemen would begin in a lower classification at a lower pay level.

'Old' and 'New'

WOULD THE REAL MACE PLEASE . . . Those who think canned Mace is inhumane, if and when a policeman squirts it at someone, should think of getting a tap on the cranium with the "old" Mace. The metal-spiked ball dangling at the end of a heavy chain affixed to an oak club could give the recipient a headache to end all headaches. The metal mace are now being widely sold in local department stores (for about $20) and police are picking up an increasing number of suspects carrying the deadly weapon. Officer Charles Phillips can't seem to make up his mind whether to use the old-style mace (left) or canned Mace (right). Take your pick. (Post Photo)

Copter Downed, DC Marine Dies

Marine Lt. Don Bosberry, 24, was just passing his sixth week in Vietnam as a helicopter pilot when his aircraft was shot down in flames April 11 while on a mission near Quang Nam Province.

That same day, 28 other aircraft were shot down during the same mission.

Lt. Bosberry had been stationed at the giant Marine base at Da Nang since his arrival in Vietnam last February 25 and faithfully wrote home to his wife, Becky (Fowler) Bosberry, and his mother, Margaret Bosberry, of 67 Skyline Drive, Daly City, almost daily.

"He was a Marine through and through and told us often that he and his buddies fully understood why they were in Vietnam," his mother said Tuesday.

Shortly before his death on April 11, Lt. Bosberry watched while two of his buddies in another "chopper" crashed into some tree tops. Without regard for his own personal safety he hovered overhead until a rescue unit reached his fallen comrades and pulled them to safety.

Last September was an eventful month for the young Marine Corp flyer: he celebrated his birthday, married his childhood sweetheart at a staid ceremony at attention while his mother and father, PG&E executive Harry Bosberry, pinned on his wings at Pensacola Naval Air Station in Florida.

A graduate of Westmoor High School, he enlisted more than two years ago and received his boot training at Quantico, West Virginia.

He is survived by his wife, father and mother, and an older brother, David.

Lt. Don C. Bosberry will be buried with full military honors at Golden Gate National Cemetery following services at Hope Lutheran Church. Dates are pending at Lasswell Mortuary, Daly City.

Coast Sewer Expansion Study Meet

said. "We are still studying the matter, and no firm decision has been made."

The city must choose between alternate plans proposing construction of an expanded sewer treatment facility at the Sharp Park location, at the Linda Mar treatment plant site, or at some other location in the city.

Residents of the Linda Mar and Sharp Park areas generally favor placing the plant at the location farthest from their homes, and numerous arguments for and against both locations have been put forward.

The subject of the sewer system came up Monday when councilmen opened a public hearing to hear protests concerning "inaccuracies and inequities" in charges levied during the past year.

Councilmen agreed that there "might be some inequities" in the charges levied against the owners of barber shops and supermarkets in the city, and the rates have been taken under review.

Lebonville and Hagerty were repeatedly admonished by City Attorney John Sherman to "stick to the specific issues of inaccuracies and inequities" during the meeting.

Lebonville, at one point, stated he thinks the "whole system is inequitable."

Want Ad Week to Be Observed

"International Want Ad Week" will be observed by Times April 13-20, Margaret Buschini, Times' classified advertising manager, announced today.

In the first of a series of advertisements calling attention to "International Want Ad Week," Barbara Eden, star of NBC television's "I Dream of Jeannie" is shown with The Times' classified section.

A series of advertisements next week will introduce The Times' classified advertising staff.

Times' readers will again be offered a special want ad rate of nine days for the price of four during "International Want Ad Week," Mrs. Buschini said.

Mrs. Buschini, selected "International Want Ad Week" chairman by the Association of Newspaper Advertising Managers, said newspapers in each of 50 states and nearly every country in the world will be calling attention to the role of want ads as communication medium between buyers and sellers, services sought and offered, and opportunities and urgent necessities.

Last year The Times classified advertising promotion efforts were awarded the first place Editor and Publisher award in competition with newspapers from many countries. It was the eight first place award earned by The Times in nine years.

Mrs. Buschini pointed out that 302,389 individual want ads were purchased in The Times in 1968 amounting to 335,389 column inches (4,695,446 lines) a 23 per cent increase over the 1967 total of 272,549 column inches.

Youth Tells Stealing Of Fifty Cars

Two Daly City youths, one of whom boasted that he has stolen as many as 50 cars, were arrested in a stolen auto Monday.

The suspects identified themselves as Kim Michael Campbell, 19, of 59 Montebello Drive, and Arthur James Beighley Jr., 15, of 47 Longview Drive. Campbell was booked at county jail and Beighley, whose 15th birthday was Sunday, at Hillcrest Juvenile Hall.

Officer Marshall Oldham of the California Highway Patrol said he stopped to check out a car parked beside Polhemus Road west of San Mateo and found the youths asleep in the auto. A radio call confirmed that the car was listed as stolen from a home in Daly City.

The boys were taken into custody. In their possession, Oldham reported, were numerous car keys, some bearing the label of San Bruno Motors at 240 El Camino Real in San Bruno. A check there, Oldham said, disclosed that a car had been stolen from the street in front of the used car lot. The youths told Oldham that they had left that auto on Ralston Avenue in Belmont. It was found where they said it would be.

The youths admitted taking two other cars since Friday, Oldham reported. Campbell, who said he is on parole from the California Youth Authority for car theft, estimated that he has stolen as many as 50 cars, the officer said.

$24,000 Bag Of Marijuana At Airport

William Jay Sweetser, 18, of Glenwood, Ore., is in County Jail in Redwood City today because he was careless with his luggage at International Airport.

Deputy Sheriff Nels Rasmussen gave this account:

Shortly after midnight, Jon Olson, a United Air Lines agent on duty in the Central Terminal Building, found a brown suitcase on the floor near a UAL ticket counter. It was unattended and bore no identification.

Olson took the bag into an office and opened it, hoping to find some identification. What he found instead were 11 kilos or bricks (about 24 pounds) of marijuana and 100 capsules of a dangerous and restricted hallucinogenic drug called psilocybin, which is synthesized from the extract of the nightshade mushroom.

Within minutes Sweetser appeared and asked about his bag. In the presence of Deputy Sheriff Neil Reynolds, who was in plain clothes, Sweetser claimed the bag and was promptly placed under arrest.

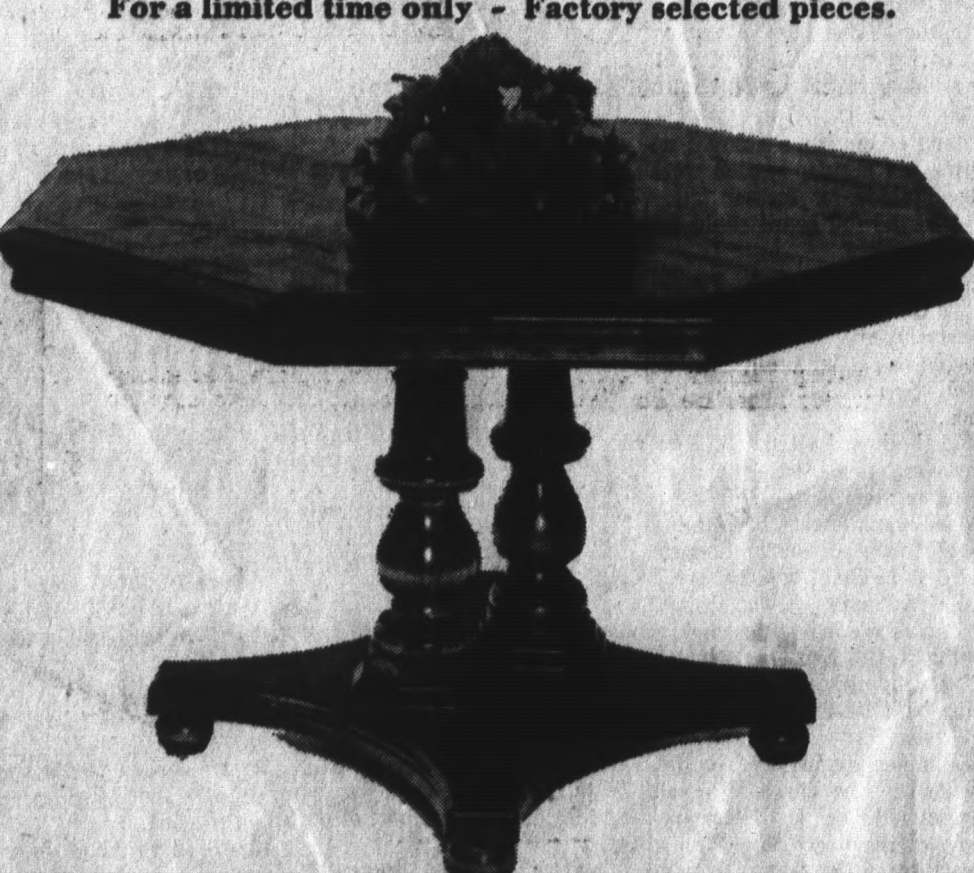

Sheriff's Sgt. Ralston Eng said the marijuana is worth from $1,200 to $1,500 on the underground market in brick form, and up to $24,000 in cigarette form.

Sweetser was booked for possession of a dangerous drug, possession of marijuana and possession of marijuana for sale.

He said there were many school children frequenting the area "and we must look into this for safety's sake."

The council went along with the Planning Commission recommendation that a request to park a mobile home on an R-1 lot be denied. Granting such a request was considered by City Planner John Walker as tantamount to okaying a mobile home park.

Among the items tabled was a request from J. H. Hedrick & Co., to permit a multiple residential (apartment) development on a ten-acre parcel on Carter Street near the Cow Palace. Another six acres of the development is across the boundary in San Francisco.

THREE-CAR PILEUP IN DALY CITY — Three persons were injured in a three-car crash at a busy intersection in Daly City Sunday. One of the victims, Flora Ditlevson, crashed through the windshield in the vehicle above. Extensive damage was done to all three cars. (Post Photo)

2 Sentenced In Shootout In South S.F.

Jail terms have been meted out to two men involved in a wild shootout in the parking lot of the White Front Store in South San Francisco last November 5.

Henry W. Jones, 33, was sentenced to a year in jail and Ray M. Boudreaux, 26, to four months.

Jones, who pleaded guilty to being an accessory, was placed on probation for five years by Superior Court Judge Allison M. Rouse.

Boudreaux, who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of credit card forgery, was admitted to three years' probation.

A third defendant, Ronald S. Bridgeforth, 24, who had pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon on a police officer, failed to appear in court for sentencing. Judge Rouse forfeited bail and issued a bench warrant for Bridgeforth's arrest. Bail on the warrant was set at $50,000.

All three men are residents of San Francisco.

The shootout occurred after the defendants failed in an attempt to use a stolen credit card at the store. When challenged, according to police, Bridgeforth drew a gun and ran from the store. He ran to the parking lot, firing at two pursuing officers as he fled, and jumped into a car driven by Jones. Finding their way blocked by a patrol car driven by Police Officer George Baptista, Bridgeforth opened fire on the car, shattering a window. All three officers fired back and

3 Hurt In 3-Car Pile-up

Three persons were injured in a three car pileup on a busy Daly City intersection Sunday afternoon.

All three escaped without serious injuries although the cars suffered extensive damages, police said.

Most seriously hurt was Mrs. Flora Ditlevson, of 2800 Ingalls Street, San Francisco, with severe lacerations of the forehead and knees and a broken finger. Police said the victims' head smashed through the windshield on impact with the two other vehicles.

The driver Harold R. Ditlevson, 67, driver of the car in which his wife was injured, suffered multiple abrasions.

The driver of another car, attempting a turn on Alemany Boulevard and Poncetia Drive, Louis M. Mihiti, 34, of 364 Windling Street, San Francisco, received a sprain and contusions in the accident.

A third car, driven by Richard L. Thompson, 28, of 40 Poncetia Avenue, Daly City, was stopped when he was struck, police reports indicate. He escaped injury.

Police found three loaded guns in the car, one of them stolen, a wired blasting cap, and 100 copies of an edition of the Black Panther newspaper.

Bridgeforth suffered a foot wound. Police found three loaded guns in the car, one of them stolen, a wired blasting cap, and 100 copies of an edition of the Black Panther newspaper.

Driver Hurt, Wife Pinned In Wreckage

A San Bruno girl and a young San Francisco couple were injured on Friday when a car ran off of Junipero Serra Freeway in South San Francisco and landed upside down beside the road.

Highway patrolmen said the driver, Francis W. Holminski, 18, of San Francisco, may have fallen asleep at the wheel. He was admitted to Mary's Help Hospital for treatment of face lacerations and possible head injuries. He was reported in satisfactory condition.

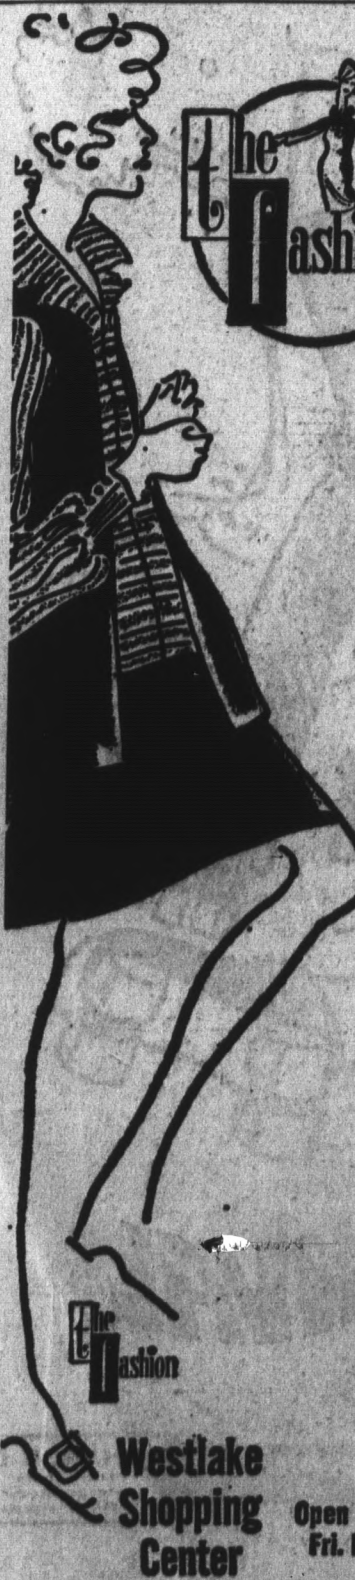

His wife, Robin, 18, who was pinned in the wreckage, was released after treatment, as was Linda Kerwon, 18, of 706 Cherry Street, San Bruno.

SSF Public Park Official

South San Francisco councilmen last week formally declared a 2 1/4-acre parcel in the West Park One and Two neighborhood a public park.

The council action was taken at the request of W. Brad Civello, a representative of the West Park Homeowners' Association.

The parcel of land was a portion of the subdivision developer's "common green commitment," City Attorney John Noonan said, and the city agreed to develop it as a public park several months ago because of the "considerable size" of the site.

Thief's In For Rude Awakening

If the person who broke into a physician's car at Mary's Help Hospital Saturday afternoon thinks he succeeded in making off with a large quantity of drugs, he's got another thought coming!

The 700 pills stolen from the parked car of Hillsborough physician, Dr. David C. Young, were birth control pills.

According to reports, the trunk of Dr. Young's car was forced open and the birth control pills, miscellaneous medical instruments, and a small amount of narcotics was taken.

Mr. Ralph Bredenberg, music director at Capuchino High School has announced the program for the annual Spring Band Concert scheduled at Cap April 18 and 19 at 8 p.m.

Entitled "Music Odyssey '69," this year's musical production includes entertainment for the entire family. Following "Zarathustra (Space Odyssey)," fanfare, Cap's majorettes, Becky Heuton, Sue Greenleaf, Nancy Huppely and Carol Hirozawa will join the band in a twirling special as they present "Purple Carnival March" by Harry L. Alford.

Other full band renditions will be "Italian in Algiers Overture," "Jazz Waltz," Lerner and Lowe's "My Fair Lady" and "Holiday for Horns" featuring a French horn soloist.

Always a popular addition is Cap's stage band, a group of young men who practice early mornings, during noon break and evenings as there is no performance in the school day to cover this part of Mr. "B's" music instruction.

Stage band numbers programmed are a "Tribute to Miller," "Tribute to Benny Goodman" with John Martz as clarinet soloist and Richard Malby's arrangement of "Wall)k on the Wild)de."

Popular Tune

A chorus from Harry Spencer's school choir is rehearsing three popular tunes to sing along with the stage band.

Accompaniment for a black light number and specialty dances by the majorettes will be provided by the full band. They also will play the rousing "Men of Ohio" march, Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Flower Drum Song," a Swedish folk song, "The Kadiddlehopper March," and "Poetry and Power" by Alfred Reed especially dedicated to the memory of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Ron Christopherson will be trumpet soloist for the nostalgic "Stormy Weather" and lead majorette, Becky Heuton, will exhibit her prize winning talent with a baton solo.

Joining the marching and concert band in a grand finale will be the Capuchino High concert choir singing "Psalm 750 (O Praise the Lord)" arranged by Cesar Franck and "This Land Is Your Land."

concert. They, along with the following band members hope everyone will attend the concert:

3 Suspects Nabbed Near D.C. Break-in Three suspects in the alleged burglary of the Garnet Robert-son School in Daly City were ap-prehended within minutes after the incident was reported by an unidentified school custodian Sunday.

Dennis E. Jew, 23, 131 Rio Verde, William L. Fischer Jr., 19, 268 Accacia, and John K. Rertz, 18, 182 Oriente — all of Daly City — were arrested near the scene of the break-in, police said.

13 Cities To Pick Queens

Thirteen San Mateo County cities have signed up to enter candidates in what has become the county's most prestigious beauty contest — the Fiestaland Dream Girl Pageant.

The following communities have officially entered the Pageant. Sponsoring organizations named by city councils are in parentheses:

The pageant winner reigns over the annual Fair and Floral

Fiesta — this year July 28-August 9 — and then goes on to compete in the big Maid of California contest at the State Fair in Sacramento.

Pageant night is a major San Mateo County event, where some 500 county leaders gather at the fairgrounds for dinner and the judging. This year, pageant night will be Friday, June 27. It has been announced by William Zappettini, Jr., chairman of the Fair and Convention Association's Visitors and Conventions Committee.

'Friends at My Door'

AAUW Sets Film

The American Association of University Women will view a film entitled "Friends At My Door" at their April 28 meeting at the South San Francisco Library on Orange Avenue.

The film depicts the activities of the International Hospitality Center.

The San Bruno Branch of A.A.U.W. works with the Hospitality Center by meeting foreign students at the S.F. International Airport, taking them on tours of the Bay Area, having them as dinner guests and occasionally as house guests.

Mrs. Donald Barnhart initiated the Student Hospitality Program of A.A.U.W. in 1962 and later Mrs. Frank Jones became chairman of this program and is still the chairman.

Both Mrs. Barnhart and Mrs. Jones have been past presidents of A.A.U.W. and both have been very active in several interest groups in A.A.U.W.

Mrs. Jones was honored two years ago by having the A.A.U.W. Fellowship Award given in her name.

This year, A.A.U.W. is honoring Mrs. Barnhart by awarding the $500 Fellowship to a deserving woman somewhere in the world, advancing her education in Mrs. Barnhart's name.

Mrs. Barnhart has been active not only in A.A.U.W., but also within the community.

She has been a Campfire Girl leader for six years, held offices in three P-TA's, is the main A.A.U.W. representative in the Head Start Program, and a teacher aide for the Educationally Handicapped class

Proceeds from the dance will go to a group of young high school students known as the "Amigos" for the purpose of providing dental care for underprivileged children in the grammar schools of Millbrae. Donation is $2 a person.

Tickets are on sale at all high schools in the Millbrae-San Bruno area.

The dance will be held in the gymnasium at Mills, with refreshments on sale in the swimming pool lanai area.

Project chairman Mark Calhoun of the Jaycees encouraged students to attend.

Working with Calhoun are Ed Nightingale and Bill Rice, Jaycees; Tony Vasquez, Mills High School faculty member and Amigo sponsor, and Mike Gugliemone, Amigo president.

Books Are Being Sought by D.C. Library Friends

An urgent call for books has been sent to the residents interested in supporting the fifth annual book fair, May 10 in the Westlake Shopping Center.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Daly City Library, the proceeds from the sale will be used to buy supplementary equipment for the library.

Bins are located at all of the fire stations in Daly City, and anyone wishing to drop off their books is urged to take advantage of these convenient locations.

The fire stations are located at 191 Edgemont, 884 King Drive, 3001 Geneva Avenue, 499 Santa Barbara, and 151 Lake Merced Boulevard.

There also are collection bins at the local libraries, 275 books.

Anyone interested may leave their name with librarians.

Some of the workers, already busy at this task, are Mrs. U. R. Kendree, Mrs. William George, Mrs. Art St. Peter, and Mrs. Frank Greenwood.

According to Mrs. Doris Fox of the Friends, all types of books and records are needed and volunteers always can be used to help price and sell the Southgate, 6351 Mission Street, and 129 Acacia Street.

POINTING OUT American Cancer Society's free showing of "Time and Two Women" at 1 p.m. April 22 at Daly City's Serra Theatre are, left to right, Dr. Paul Neagle Daly City unit medical consultant, and Mr. and Mrs. McRobert Stewart, both active in the April education drive aimed at informing women of the film on breast self examination and uterine cancer. Free child care has been arranged at Serra Bowl. Dr. Michael Braberman will answer questions following the film. (Post Photo)

'Bustles And Bows' —Style Show

The Bustles, Buttons, and Bows Luncheon and Fashion Show will be staged at Hope Lutheran Social Hall, 55 San Fernando Way, Daly City, on Friday, beginning with a bake sale at 11 a.m.

An array of goodies, baked by the women of Hope, will be sold.

At noon, waitresses from the guild will serve a spring luncheon, to be followed by the highlight of the occasion — a costume fashion show.

As the guests complete their dessert, models — both men and women — will wear what was fashionable in 1870, at the turn of the century, before World War I, in the roaring twenties, during the depression thirties, and in the late 1960s.

Mrs. Romona Rath will describe the fashions so the audience can picture the time as well as the costume.

Four skits and the Charleston will brighten the fashion show.

The women of Hope Lutheran Ladies' Guild invited women from the community to attend. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Daly City Church Plans 'Focus on Youth' Series

"Focus on Youth" will be the emphasis of a special series of meetings scheduled for the Grace United Presbyterian Church in Daly City.

The resource person for this series will be Rudi W. Tretten, assistant principal guidance at Jefferson High School in Daly City.

Meetings are set for Sunday evenings, April 20 and April 27 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the church fellowship hall located at 515 Winchester Street.

Tretten will use a variety of materials and methods to illustrate some of the ideas motivating youth today.

Audio-visual materials include a tape recording of selected music and showing of the film "IT" — produced by Jefferson students last year.

Subsequent presentations will feature a film dealing with the problems of an adolescent girl growing up and the subjects of prejudice and stereotyping. Small group discussion will be used throughout the series of meetings.

The pastor, the Rev. James McCluskey, said the purpose of the series is to explore the ideals of youth today and their culture as well as the issues causing the generation gap. "Hopefully, this series will help youth gain new insights about their culture and allow them to critically evaluate the influences that shape their lives today. We hope that this series will give new insight and sensitivity to adults about youth today," the pastor said. Meetings are open to all persons in the community.

THE Y'S WAY Trimnastics program is one of the San Mateo County YWCA offerings, now open to registration, according to director Justine Williams in Daly City. Instructor is Valeria Borszaki, who leads slimming exercises above. Classes are held at Westlake Clubhouse, Daly City, on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Teachers at the school have submitted questions and topics they think will be of interest to the parents of their students, and a large part of the presentation will be based on their recommendations.

A question period will be held during which any of the three officers will be happy to answer any questions from the audience.

Since drug abuse is a problem which may affect any one with school age children, the P-TA is inviting all concerned citizens to attend this meeting.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE
THE IMPORTANCE OF A "BAR" IN YOUR HOME

Let me say at the beginning that a "bar" does not necessarily mean a liquor cabinet, because it may be equally useful for soft drinks.

But whether you serve cocktails or Cokes or both, the importance of a place to store and serve drinks must be recognized as part of the way of life in modern social living.

Many homes and apartments have a built-in breakfast bar between kitchen and dinette. For those who do not have this convenience, here are a few of the many ways you can be a charming host or hostess:

1. There are many portable tea or snack wagons or carts to fit every decor and budget.

2. Your buffet or credenza, especially if it has a plastic top, makes an excellent service bar and will leave room for party snacks, too.

3. One of the cleverest bars I saw in a home that had a living room closet which the owners converted into a snack bar by removing the closet door.

4. Many commode-type occasional tables may double for a bar.

5. For small apartments, a small, hanging wall cabinet may be used.

6. If you are unable to work any of these ideas, you can select from the many fine liquor cabinets and bars, with or without bar stools, which are available.

NELL NORTON

(Sugar 'n Spice)

Delicious Dish Of Stuffed Manicotti

Good morning, good cooks.

What a delicious dish I have to share with you today. It comes from Mrs. Mary Sherer, who lives at 20 Oakmont Avenue here in Daly City. Mary is an excellent cook and has improvised and created her own version of stuffed manicotti. Besides being so good tasting, this recipe is also great because it can be made ahead. In fact, Mary says she frequently makes it the day before and refrigerates it until time to bake.

MANICOTTI

- 2 boxes of manicotti
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 pound ground round
- 1 teaspoon parsley
- 1 10-oz. package frozen spinach, chopped (thawed) or one small bunch young spinach, chopped
- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese

Brown the clove of garlic, the onion and the pound of ground round. Add the teaspoon parsley, the package of thawed chopped spinach, two eggs, two tablespoons bread crumbs and the one-fourth cup parmesan cheese. Toss lightly together.

Fill the uncooked shells with the filling. Arrange filled shells in a single layer in a 13x9x2-inch baking dish. Completely cover manicotti with meatless spaghetti sauce. Cover baking dish with aluminum foil and bake for one hour in 350-degree oven.

SAUCE

- 1/2 medium onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic minced
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 large can tomatoes (No. 2 1/2), sieved
- 8 ounces tomato sauce
- 1 6-ounce can tomato paste
- 1 cup water
- 2 teaspoons parsley
- 2 teaspoons Italian spices
- a pinch of oregano
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

In a large skillet saute the chopped onion and the clove minced garlic in the three tablespoons olive oil. Rub the tomatoes through a sieve. (This take a bit of time, but is most necessary for a smooth sauce.) and add the tomatoes to the sauteed onion and garlic. Add the one can of tomato sauce and the can of tomato paste. Before adding the paste I mixed it with the one cup of water. Add the two teaspoons parsley, two teaspoons Italian spices, pinch of oregano, two teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Simmer over low heat for an hour.

The night I served this dish my dessert was the "Forgotten Toret" that was featured in The Post at Easter. Just recently my niece, Barbie Schaefer who lives in Eureka, sent me a very tasty, light and easy to make dessert that would go equally well with this dish.

STRAWBERRY DREAM

- 1 pkg. strawberry gelatin
- 1 cup hot water
- 1 pkg. frozen strawberries
- 2 bananas, sliced
- 1 package vanilla "whip 'n' chill"

Prepare the gelatin using one cup hot water. Substitute the frozen strawberries for the cold water. Stir gently until the strawberries are thawed and the gelatin is beginning to thicken. Add the two sliced bananas and pour into an 8-inch square pan. Be careful to have the gelatin cover the bananas so they won't darken in the air. Refrigerate until completely set, about 45 minutes. Prepare the vanilla pudding as directed. Spread over the gelatin and refrigerate for one hour.

Cut in squares to serve. Serves six.

A young lady in Nebraska just recently won $2,500 for this cookie recipe in the Pillsbury Bake-Off. It is a goodie and the shape of the cookies is different and most appealing.

NUTTY COOKIE RINGS

- 1 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 3 tablespoons orange flavored gelatin
- 1 cup chopped salted cocktail peanuts

In a large mixing bowl cream the one cup butter and the one-half cup sugar. Blend in the two cups flour, the three tablespoons orange flavored gelatin and the one cup chopped salted peanuts. If necessary, chill dough one hour.

Shape dough by spoonful into strips about the thickness of a pencil and 5 inches long. Shape into rings and place on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in 350-degree oven for 8 to 12 minutes or until slightly browned. Cool on cookie sheet about two minutes; remove. Makes about 30 cookies.

Because my family is not too fond of peanuts I made these cookies substituting one cup chopped walnuts for the peanuts and three tablespoons sugar for the orange gelatin. They were delicious, too. I sprinkled the cooled cookies with sifted powdered sugar.

Speaking of substituting and changing recipes, next week we will feature a variety of the Breeze Cake that one of the good cooks in this area sent in. Also her recipe for Sponge Layer Cake.

D. C. Chamber Assails Ryan Stand on Tax Hike

Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan was at the receiving end of another verbal barrage Thursday for his stand on AB 272—the controversial piece of legislation that would lift the lid off the tax rate and allow school districts to set their own rate as needed.

The latest barrage came from Daly City Chamber of Commerce director Frank Spadarella, chairman of the Legislative Committee or the chamber.

And after Spadarella was through explaining the cons of certain sections of AB 272 and how they would affect local homeowners, the chamber went on record opposing it and ordered chamber manager Peter Markovich to write a letter to various north county representatives voicing this stand.

Only two directors at the meeting registered "no" votes on the matter—Jefferson Union High School Superintendent Edward Mergin and developer representative James Sargeant.

Spadarella was asked if efforts had been made to contact assemblyman Ryan for his views on the subject of AB 272. "I sent a letter some time ago and have not received a reply to date from assemblyman Ryan," Spadarella answered.

Other legislators contacted, including Richard Dolwig and Carl Britschgi, informed the chamber they would work towards repealing those sections of AB 272 which would turn over responsibility for setting the tax rate to school districts, Spadarella explained.

He said the deadline for submission of new legislation was April 10 and that two new bills had been introduced which would amend the tax rate sections of AB 272.

Meanwhile, Spadarella's committee looked into two other legislative matters pending in Sacramento—a tax reform bill and operations of non-profit organizations.

On the subject of a statewide equalization tax for schools, Morgan pointed out that AB 409 would provide some $2 million for both the Jefferson High School District and Jefferson Elementary district immediately without raising property tax rates.

According to Morgan the monies would come from the state's general fund and would raise state aid to districts by about six per cent, to 38 per cent.

Both Morgan and Spadarella traced the history of the property owner versus government aid to schools over the years. Each year the government's portion declines while the property owner's share increases, the directors revealed.

Chamber president Elio Fontana (a Jefferson High School trustee) praised Spadarella's committee for their "exhausting work" on the committee and said "we are indebted to you for such a fine report."

Criminal proceedings are suspended while Fetcer undergoes observation at the State Medical Facility, Vacaville, today by Superior Judge Allison M. Rouse.

Fetcer pleaded guilty March 19 to a charge of manslaughter in the shooting death last December 22 of another San Bruno man, Edward Donaldson, 42, in atric observation.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON

Easy Street Features Live Music—Dancing

Live music and dancing is the policy of the new Easy Street niterie (formerly the Fireside Lounge). Currently appearing is the Magic Mushrooms group, the first on a rundown of name groups to appear at this San Mateo bistro. Judging from the well-crowded dance floor, Wednesday evening, dancing is here to stay. Davey Rosenberg of The Condor in San Francisco has been inundated with requests from servicemen in South Vietnam for photographs of Topless dancer Diana Dennis. Diana, it seems, is one of their favorite pin-ups. Duane Eckert, skipper of the Cap's Cabin, says why sit around the San Mateo train station for a half hour during commute time, when the "Cabin" is just around the corner on B Street. Relax, have a cool one while you wait. The Iriune restaurant on Seventeenth Avenue is truly a bit of Japan transplanted to San Mateo. Full course and a la carte Japanese meals as well as take-out orders. The old-fashioned method of "pizza flipping" is practiced at La Dolce Pizza, located two miles north of Half Moon Bay on Cabrillo Highway at Miramar Beach. Owner Giuseppe D'Amato is "head flipper" at this new pizzeria.

A DOG'S LIFE—Four hands are better than two and Margie Brandon, who plays the organ at Baron's in San Francisco, is getting help from her German Shepherd, "Miss Fire." Fire, who is just out of canine finishing school, conducts herself like a perfect lady under normal circumstances. However, one thing the school failed to teach her was what to do when confronted suddenly with a two-foot fence. Fire leaped the fence, taking Margie with her. As we see in the photo, they both ended up in the damaged digit department.

Allie Lorraine leads singalong sessions nightly in the Domino Penthouse, where Leonard Garr performs on the Twin Pianos with comic Kenny Bart. Just found out that instead of going to Vince's Italian and Sea Food restaurant for a recent lasagna bust, Al King, the Peninsula's "entertainment bookie," accepted Brian Fallon's invitation to feast on lasagna at his Tahoe Keys home. Al, although known in some circles as a "snow man," is definitely not known as such in the Nevada area. Because of a big snow storm, Al wound up in a caravan of snowmobiles for transportation to Brian's home. Others in this "safari" were Glen Spiedel, Dick Lane, Ron Whalen, Candy Hall, Will Osborne, Stan Rutherford and family, and the Baja Marimba Band. "Next time, said Al, 'I'll book the act' into Vince's." ... Those going to the Cinema 21 Theater on Chestnut Street near Steiner enjoy their dinner either before or after the movie at Lew Lehr's Steak House, which is on Steiner Street near Chestnut. In other words, just around the corner from the theater.

Authenticity is the keynote of Frank Torres' Montana Beach Hotel restaurant on Coast Highway One. All the Peruvians in the Bay Area make it a frequent habit of dining at Torres' place, where some of the finest in native Peruvian dishes are served. Taste tip of the week: A full course prime rib dinner "As you like it" (three-quarter cut or a full cut) at Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City. Choose from the hearty, oven and skillet. Business and political leaders of the Bay Area may be seen dining in a hospitable setting, surrounded by the rich decor of fine Italian oil paintings at Orsetti's restaurant in San Francisco. Frank Judnick is the strolling accordionist who plays the musical requests. Vince Russo, owner and banquet counselor at the redecorated Russo's restaurant, is an expert in arranging sit-down wedding receptions and dinner parties. The genial host will be happy to assist you in arranging receptions of any size. "Banquets from 2 to 200" is the motto. Sil Oliva's Exposition Fish Grotto at Fisherman's Wharf is a favorite dining spot among the tourists. Angie Rosasco reports there are so many tourists, the tourists are looking at the tourists.

A new European-style restaurant has mushroomed up on El Camino Real. Namely Tino's. Credits go to the Constantine brothers, Umberto and Rosario for bringing this welcome addition to San Mateo's fast-growing "dine-out parade." An intimate French-Italian atmosphere prevails, accented by a Continental menu. A Brick Flambe Server, which is on display in the dining room, is a "Peninsula first." Luncheon served 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.; dinner, 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. John Darrimon, co-owner of DarDany's in Menlo Park, boasts of having the finest imported wines available for your choosing. Both luncheon and dinner is served in a serene Roman setting. The Shadows of San Mateo restaurant offers one of the most varied menus on the restaurant best. Order a "Diamond Jim Brady Cut of Prime Steer Rib, Au Jus," or select from the menu of Continental dinners, such as Gratinierter Huhn met Nudeln (Baked Chicken with noodles, au Gratin). Served full course or a la carte. Banquets and outside catering also available.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON

The 'Birds Have Arrived' Big New Finocchio Show

As one of the big attractions for the forthcoming tourist season, a colorful, new "The Birds Is Here" revue, in the manner of Alfred Hitchcock, has opened at Finocchio's, house of female impersonations. Everyone in the cast portrays a bird of some sort—ranging from Juan Jose's striking portrayal of a black hawk to Lucian's white owl. The finale of the new show is presented with the entire cast on stage, and finds Laverne Cummings as the "blue bird of happiness"; Reggie Dahl as the "bird in the gilded cage," in the manner of Joanne Worley of the Rowan and Martin TV show; and 395-pound Russell Reed as a light-winged humming-bird. All in all, a spectacular production. The Sebastian Three "bring the house down" at the VIP Lounge every Friday and Saturday night from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. with their musical offerings. Host Al Wagner invites you to join the fun.

The Tiger Room at the Hilton Inn, San Francisco International Airport, is sponsoring a weekly "Talent Safari" beginning Thursday, April 24. Purpose of the talent nights, to be held every Thursday, is to encourage local talent in the area, reports Donald J. Devoto, Hilton Inn manager. Winners each week will receive special prizes and will appear as guest performers the following week with Russell Lee and Birdie and the International Explosion, now appearing at the Tiger Room. Applications for persons 21 or over may be picked up at the Tiger or interested persons should write to the Hilton Inn or phone 589-0770. Auditions will be held every Wednesday from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. ... After-ton's Cote D'Azur restaurant has become a favorite luncheon and dinner spot for people from all over the Bay Area. If you have a large group, co-owners Dan Biagi and Rene Canabou suggest their Wine Dining Room, which can comfortably seat up to 40 persons.

Bob Lucas, who holds forth with voice and pianistic talent at the pianobar of the Shirt Tail restaurant in Palo Alto, is also a composer. On a recent evening, he sang one of his compositions while a recording company executive listened. Result: Bob will soon be making his first recording. ... Responsible for those fine dinners from the kitchen at Dell'Oso's restaurant in San Mateo is kindly Fred Kinder. A native of Germany, Fred has served with the Hilton Hotel chain in Sydney, Australia, and at the Hawaiian Village in Honolulu. ... Beli Szlavik, master chef and owner of the International Garden restaurant in Burlingame, announces the opening of his garden patio dining area, where you may enjoy tantalizing Hungarian cuisine or one of his famous League of Nations dinners. A special dish from each nation of the world is featured each day of the month. ... Banquet facilities are available at A. Sabella's at picturesque Fisherman's Wharf for parties as large as 450 persons, and as small as 40.

The Sinaloa cantina in North Beach offers one of the few genuine all-Mexican revues found anywhere in the Bay Area. Under the direction of Luz Garcia, the Sinaloa now features such outstanding talent as the dance team of Maria Dolores and Miguel Santos, the sensuous Vicky Alvarez, Olga Romero and Raul Lara. Three shows every night, except Sunday, when the club is dark. ... Vern Coenenberg reports: the Easter business boom broke all previous records at his "All you can eat" Black Angus Chuck Wagon in San Mateo. ... Friday and Saturday night, take time out to drop into Nick's restaurant at Rockaway Beach, Pacifica, to listen to the song stylings of Mary Ann Hay and dance to the lively music of the Del Carlo Combo.

SSF Tracksters Win Over T.N.

The South San Francisco tracksters are progressing along just fine, thank you, and the latest witnesses to that fact are the Terra Nova Tigers.

Tuning up for the King City meet, the Warriors dinged the Tigers, 94-42, running the North Peninsula League record to 2-0 despite the insertion of a few new faces in the lineups.

Ray Dutton, Ashland Whitfield and junior Andy Alexander provided a double excitement, each one taking two events with the progressively stronger Alexander giving the Warriors the biggest boost with a 23.2 in the 220-yard dash and a 51.9 in the 440.

Whitfield won both events he entered by clocking a 9.9 in the 100 yard dash and doing the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 flat. Dutton took the triple jump with a 40-5 leap and soared 21-6 in the long jump.

Whitfield won both events he entered by clocking a 9.9 in the 100 yard dash and doing the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 flat. Dutton took the triple jump with a 40-5 leap and soared 21-6 in the long jump.

Crestmoor's Swimmers Defeat Cap

The combination of sibling rivalry and night swimming captured the prep spotlight on the Peninsula last Friday.

As a crowd of nearly 400 watched on under the arcs at the Crestmoor High School swimming pool, coach John DeFelice's Falcons defeated brother Dick DeFelice's Cap men, 63-25, in a Mid Peninsula League meet.

In other action around the league, San Mateo won a dramatic 41-41½ victory over Argon and unbeaten Hillsdale barely hung on for a 45-41 triumph over upstart Mills.

In the Crestmoor-Cap battle, the meet marked the last time that the DeFelice brothers would face each other across the pool as rivals. Dick DeFelice is stepping down as head swim coach at Cap following this season and San Bruno turned out to fete the former New Yorker and cheer on their favorite team. Crestmoor's victory evened up the DeFelice brother series at three wins each in six years of rivalry.

Cap's Peter Verity turned up the individual hero, winning two events. Verity captured the 200 free in 2:01.1, barely nipping Crestmoor's Mike Bolger, and the 100 free in 53.4, edging Dennis Krueger of the Falcons. Crestmoor is now 2-3 in MPL action.

In the class B meet, the unbeaten Junior Mustangs rewarded Dick DeFelice with a 62-18 victory.

San Mateo's Doug Payne turned up the hero in San Mateo's narrow win, which was decided in the final event of the day when the Bearcat 400 yard free relay team rallied to gain a tie with the Dons.

Payne, swimming the anchor on the relay team, started behind Aragon's Tad Hubbard, but blitzed the last hundred in an outstanding 50.6 seconds to touch the finish at the exact same time.

Besides aiding the relay team, Payne won the 200 free in 1:56 flat and the 100 free in a scintillating 59 seconds flat—the fastest time in the MPL this season.

Hubbard was a double winner for the Dons, as was team mate Kit Kalb. Hubbard annexed the 200 individual medley in 2:14.8 and then came back to capture the 400 free in 4:13.0, while Kalb accounted for the 50 free (24.0) and the 100 free (52.9). The victory gave San Mateo a 4-1 mark with one meet to go.

MPL favorite Hillsdale got double victory performances from Jeff Lamb and Bruce Oliver, who set a new school record of 4:13.7 in the 400 free.

Oliver won the 400 free and the 200 free with a 1:57.8 clocking, while Lamb took the 50 free (24.2) and 100 free (53.0).

Vince Schram was a double winner for the Knights in the frosh-soph meet.

Although the pheasant's diet consists mainly of grains and seeds, he has been known occasionally to eat mice.

TRIPLE BLUE CHIP STAMPS WITH GAS ALL YEAR AROUND

2nd Victory For Rams; T.N. Wins

By JERRY LITTELL
Post Sports Writer

For the fourth time in the five-game old schedule, two new teams Saturday occupied first place in the jumbled and hectic North Peninsula League baseball chase.

Underrated Westmoor, getting a second straight shutout from lefty Steve Roche, posted a 3-0 victory over Tuesday's leader, Half Moon Bay, while Terra Nova also took a turn in first with a 5-1 win over pesky Oceans. South San Francisco got right back in the middle of things with a 5-1 decision over Jefferson.

So after just five league games every squad in the NPL has at least two losses and only one and one-half games separate first and last place.

With ace thrower Dana Marcus still out of action, Ram coach Rodney Losberger called upon Roche, who Tuesday had shutout El Camino, 2-0, and the slippery pitcher blanked rugged Half Moon Bay. Roche was near perfect as he struck out seven Cougars and didn't walk a batter.

Loose defense proved the difference in this one as the Cougars allowed the three winning runs to cross the plate unearned by committing all of their four errors in the first two innings.

Gordy Contreras led off the first gaining life on an error. Larry Gambol singled him to second and Doug Matgen loaded the bags when he benefited from a HMB error. Joel Lesser singled in Contreras and Don Schotts grounded into a double play with Gambol scoring.

In the second Mike Brown was safe on still another miscue. Roche aided his cause with a single and a two-base error by the centerfielder let Brown cross the plate.

The dormant Terra Nova bats finally came to life against Oceans on the Shark field that has been a hitter's heaven so far this year. Catcher Mike Rawlings provided the power as he smashed a two-run homer in the fourth inning to give the Tigers, now 3-2, the winning margin.

The Tigers scored in the second when Mike Calder singled, stole second and scored on Rawlings' single. Then in the fourth Calder again singled ahead of Rawlings' 380-ft. blast. Tim Lutz added another run that inning when he singled in Frank Mutti, who had gained second on an infield hit and an error. Lutz then stole second and third and tallied on an infield error.

Oceans' only score came in the sixth when catcher Chuck Smoker also smashed a round-tripper.

Bob McClure was the winner striking out nine and walking two during his four-hitter.

Jefferson coach Tom Martinez, who had his apprentice year last season at South City, got a lesson from his former professor as the Warriors smashed Jefferson. Jeff, which racked up an amazing total of stolen bases this year, was held to one steal while the Warriors garnered 11 under Bob Brian's watchful eye.

Rich Crumpton and Bruce Collins again shared the mound duties with Crumpton pitching three scoreless innings and getting the win.

Brad Brian opened the scoring by walking and going to third on an errant pickoff attempt. He tallied on an infield error. In the third Rich Goldstein got on via an error, Lory Bernardini walked, Brian singled in Goldstein after which Bernardini stole home.

Jim Young set a new high game mark of 227 in the Otis Elevator League as he bowled a 243 game and 590 series. A tie for high series was registered in the Westlake Knolls League as both George Balleto and Jack Grass rolled 599 series. George had a high game of 241 while Jack's best effort was a 220.

In the roll-off for the championship of the Westmore Handicap League, the Mup and Don rolled the first two games from Ayoub's 800-803 and 840-785 making the third game unnecessary.

Westmoor Frosh Lose to Camino

Westmoor High Rams frosh-soph baseball nine lost to El Camino Colts, 6-0, on the Colts diamond.

The Colts scored four times in four innings by getting their leadoff batter on and bunting them in, while Colt Rick Green was throwing his two hitter.

Everything wasn't so solemn for the Rams. They tried to rally in second when Gary Stoller got a single off the centerfield but in trying to stretch it to a double was thrown out at second. Richard Cardera then led off their lead with a single to center but was left on base.

That was the only threat from the Rams until the seventh when they had the bases loaded, two out. Ted Gray hit a line drive and Colt Mazzotti, the second-basemen, made a diving catch for the final out of the game.

One of the brightest spots for the Colts was Dave Bias who went three for three, one of his being a double over the center field fence. Dale Randall, who hit a triple into left field, and scored on a squeeze play was also invaluable to his team. Rams Gary Stoller and Richard Cardera, who both went one for three were the only ones to get hits for the Rams.

This loss for Westmoor is the third in a row in league play since the league started. Westmoor Rams, who are now 0-3, play against South City Friday.

3rd, 4th Rounds End In Volleyball

West Bay Rapid Transit Lays an Egg

EDITORIAL

AFTER YEARS OF consultation, more than a million dollars' worth of expert and technical advice, the much-heralded West Bay Rapid Transit Authority has, in the words of the vernacular, "laid an egg."

It has been a painful process from the start when outraged San Mateo County auto owners found they were to pay the more than a million in expenses from an addition to "in lieu" tax fees collected by the state on registration of automobiles in the county.

Despite the screams of auto owners who bitterly pointed out that they were providing their own rapid transit, the big project got started with the hiring of prestigious experts to make the necessary studies and provide the actual plans.

On Tuesday of last week the WBRTA, after five years of work, set the date of June 10 for an election on a "master plan for rapid transit services for San Mateo County." It is of significance that three members of the authority were against the bob-tailed version of the "master plan" to be placed before the voters. The remaining four members adopted the resolution validating the election.

Much is made of the circumstance that no tax commitment is to be made and each financing arrangement subsequently offered must be okayed by the electors.

To get the entire picture — the whole master plan is divided. The first part calls for a $20,000,000 bus system that will admittedly lose slightly over two million a year. The second would call for mass transit service, beyond the bus system, to the International Airport and connection with the BARTD at Daly City. The third part is the real "master plan" and would consist of a complete system reaching from Daly City to San Jose and would be part of integrated regional transit. Total cost has been estimated at $577,000,000.

Minority members of the authority wanted to place this whole, organized master plan before the voters, retaining the rights of voters to control costs.

Majority members voted to give the voters only the bus segment of the whole plan. This was branded as a "Mickey Mouse" solution by one interested observer.

Oddly enough, most of the authority appeared to have been easily frightened away from the most logical and least costly plan. That would be the use of modern passenger facilities on the existing Southern Pacific properties. This could be done by mutual consent and subsidy aiding the railroad's future freight-handling problems, and needs for better facilities, or by reasonable eminent domain proceedings. A passenger terminal at Crocker Plaza would please both commuters and other travelers and create other valuable assets.

That's what the people really wanted — not an egg on which the expense of an election will be lost. No bus system is ever going to turn into a magic carpet.

So what should be done? We urge that the directors of the West Bay Authority set aside their resolution to have a June 10 election on their proposed bus system, and submit to the voters the question of whether they desire a complete rapid transit system as proposed by the technical advisers of the authority. In the alternative, they should postpone the election. Any action less than this will be a complete waste of taxpayers' money which has been used to develop the recommendations of the authority's consultants.

We know that there are some powerful interests which oppose any rapid transit system that would move people speedily in and out of San Mateo County. These interests, of course, applaud the majority decision of the authority's directors, so that the voters will not get a chance to approve or disapprove any real effective rapid transit system.

Let's not ask the voters to express their opinion on a bus system which is a feeder to nothing, at a deficit of 2 million dollars a year, and then conclude (as apparently the majority of the board hopes to do) that a negative vote means that the people of this county don't want a rapid transit system at all.

Idea Shortage

Common to student radicalism as it manifests itself on college campuses is the absence of a program to replace what is to be uprooted.

Most protesters have seemed barren of ideas and consumed only by a desire to stage a revolution against existing institutions and the stability they represent.

Now a student power conference at the University of Pennsylvania has given a clue as to why it's difficult to propose a program of revolution that will appeal to students and workers, too.

The great mass of students and workers do not realize how oppressed they are, it seems. Signed one student at the conference: "It's fairly difficult to tell a worker making $9,600 a year that he's all that oppressed."

The impression that emerged from the conference is that the students are in no position to lead the revolution they claim to want.

Do They Really Want It Back?

Daly City has lost its weather to the coast-side city of Pacifica and the Chamber of Commerce wants it back—right now!

Several months ago a San Francisco television station began including Daly City on its evening weather map. Pacifica's mayor Nick Gust complained that the station was ignoring Pacifica and network officials fogged over Daly City in favor of Pacifica.

The Daly City-Colma Chamber, after earlier this month praising the station for telecasting Daly City's weather every evening, yesterday decided not to wait out the storm and, instead, write their own letter of protest.

A network spokesman assured both cities the only solution would be to alternate the two cities on a monthly basis during weather forecasts in the future.

FROM OUR READERS:

Saluting the Flag

To The Editor:

So many times lately we have heard that the silent majority by remaining silent, encourages the minority, in its expressions of protest. If this be the case, I feel strongly compelled to respond to a "Mother's Reply" which appeared in Frank LaPierre's column (April 2).

I am always dismayed and disheartened by senseless and ill-considered actions of the very people that the majority of Americans are striving to encourage toward full and equal rights as fellow Americans. I would tell this mother, that if there is not full "justice and liberty for all" in this land (unfortunately, I agree that sometimes there is not), that the Pledge of Allegiance should be repeated more and more times by all of us, black and white.

Our pledge should be a sought-for goal that someday will be reality. I wish that I could say that this would be in this mother's or my own lifetime, but it can well be in her child's lifetime. Barriers are being broken down day by day. Many wonderful black Americans are making daily contributions to this country, by meeting their responsibilities, by striving for an education, by competing for jobs.

Every other ethnic group and each generation has had to literally fight for the right to live as free men and women. It would be sheer idealism to expect these things to happen automatically, they should, but in a realistic word where human beings are not always perfect, they don't.

This mother is angry and full of pessimism, for herself and her child, and in her view, rightly so. I would like to tell her that we can build for better tomorrows by approaching all of our problems with less emotion and more thought today. I would tell her that her child needs to pledge allegiance to the flag, that her child needs the protection afforded by that flag that her child should learn that the pledge is not just words or lip service but a sincere affirmation of all that this country can become for her and her children.

While I can admire this mother's courage in protesting, I would encourage her to protest for better schools for her child, to protest for more jobs for all minorities, but I would remind her that in refusing to salute the flag of our country she is performing an act that can only be interpreted as misguided anger and, at worst, an act of ignorance.

In regard to her statements regarding the lack of black people on the council, or the school boards (all elective offices) I would like to tell this mother that I would vote for Carl Stokes of Cleveland, Richard Hatcher of Gary, Ind., and Thomas Bradley of Los Angeles, all fine Americans, but I would not vote for or support any person who refuses to salute his flag or refuses to stand up and be counted as an American.

FRANK SPADARELLA
Daly City

(P.S.—I write this as a citizen and not an official of this county. (Spadarella is chairman of the San Mateo County Human Relations Committee—Editor.)

To The Editor:

Having been away from Daly City, I caught up with backlogged local news.

And of course I read of the anger at the young black student and her mother, when both refused to pledge the allegiance at a youth government event in March.

With the alarming increase of racism, the lack of liberty and justice throughout our country, I find your anger most hypocritical, as well as ill-directed.

Why do you not speak out with the same strong disgust against the harassment, killings, jailing, etc., of the black people.

Is there no more proof necessary than recent happenings (Newton, Baskett, Fuller and Roberts cases) that liberty and justice are an empty shell?

I salute these two people who face realities of today and refuse to join the hypocrites who are mouthing the Pledge of Allegiance.

Weed Killer Sales

INEFFECTIVE WEED KILLER: Hinerant gardeners with names, equipment and method of operation smacking very much of the notorious Williamson gang which migrates west every spring are working door-to-door selling an ineffective weed killer.

SWEETSTAKES AWARDS: The mails are crammed with "sweetstakes awards" coupons from magazine publishers, record clubs and real estate promotions.

The odds against winning are tremendous but the odds, unfortunately against the "winner" inadvertently putting in an order are considerably less. Many a happy "winner" fails to realize that he actually gave the greenlight to the sender to enter subscriptions and collect for goods.

If you are a person who responds to such giveaways, double check because chances are you are agreeing to have something sent on approval. These promotions are big business and such companies are willing to spend $1,000 to get $4,000 or $1 million to get $4 million in orders playing on the average persons' yen to get something for nothing.

NOTIFY YOUR AGENT IF YOU PLAN TO CANCEL INSURANCE POLICY: The person who decides to cancel an insurance policy has an obligation to notify the insurance firm.

Most agents, as a service to the policy holder, issue a renewal policy prior to the expiration of the existing contract to provide continuous insurance protection.

If a policyholder receives a policy he no longer desires, he is obligated to return the contract immediately or to notify his agent in writing that he no longer desires the coverage. This is to protect him from having to pay a duplicate insurance premium and to eliminate any possible conflict in coverage should a loss develop when there are two policies outstanding.

A Third Term for D.C. Mayor

AS REPORTED IN THIS COLUMN last month, Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett will continue on as mayor of this fast-growing North County city for a third consecutive term, an indication of the confidence his fellow councilmen have in his abilities to lead.

The incoming vice-mayor will probably be Tony Giammona, who was only last year elected to his first full term on that board.

AND WHILE HE WON'T come right out and say it, muni judge Charles Becker is in the race for that superior judgeship about to be vacated by retiring judge Wayne Millington. Becker, an 11-year veteran on the bench, has been considered for a seat on the superior court bench several times in the past and some folks seem to have jumped the gun by calling Becker's chances of getting the post "dead." The silvery-haired jurist has waited eight long (and often lonely) years for the next step up the ladder and you can't blame him for chomping at the bit, one of hizzoner's acquaintances remarked recently.

OTHERS THAT CAN'T BE RULED OUT for the judgeship include muni judges Paul Hupf and Roy Seagraves.

FLAT OF OUR SWORD to those five Daly City Planning Commissioners (and the city planner) who set the time for their last meeting for 8 p.m. and then kept everyone waiting for 21 minutes. And not one apology.

DALY CITY CIVIC LEADER Elio Fontana just back from an adventure in Vancouver (B.C.) can't stop talking about Alderman (that's a councilman, son) Frank Beard's "Attic" restaurant — billed as the "World's Second Most Unusual . . ." After listening to Elio, we'd sure hate to hear about the world's MOST unusual. Baker, once one of the hottest horns around the west coast until he lost his uppers, built an attic over his West Vancouver restaurant (get the relationship?) a couple years back, threw in week night sing-a-longs and a fun show, in which he does most of the funning, and struck pure gold.

Not only does the north-of-the-border politician grind out a periodical dealing solely with his Attic, he acts as car hop, head chef, sometimes waiter and nightly comic. He doesn't blow the horn anymore, though. You can't blame Fontana, who stems around town on a dozen committees, for being impressed with Baker's boundless energy.

THERE WAS A TIME when I dreaded bumping into "Buz" Beecher and his confounded motorcycle. That was back WHEN Buz wore the blue of Daly City. And he wore it well for more than 24 years — until last January. That's when he decided to park his bike, and trade his blue uniform in for a pension. Buz is back in uniform again, but this time he's wearing tan. And he's back on families stomping grounds—the Westlake area. As a guard for the giant Doelger Corporation, Buz keeps bumping into folks he's known for years.

D.C. NEEDS EMPLOYMENT OFFICE (not to mention summer jobs for youths). Just got the latest Executive Director's Report from the D.C. Info and Referral Center, thanks to the Reverend H. A. Bryant. The bulletin is most revealing.

For example, the business men's group that started only last year in a burst of enthusiasm seems to be dwindling to nothing. Only eight jobs for needy youths have been pledged to date (and those were produced by Bryant) against some 200 pledged last year. With the summer period short weeks away, there just isn't much time to get with it, Bryant explained this week.

LOOK FOR ACTION from local senior citizens regarding a desire on their part to "get involved" in providing more recreation in target areas of Daly City; all aimed at getting kids to play somewhere BESIDES IN THE STREETS. Brace yourselves, gentlemen of the City Council.

BARBARA BLADEN

"The Illustrated Man" has all the elements of a fascinating science-fiction fable. It has Rod Steiger in a variety of roles and time periods, Claire Bloom as an enigmatic tattoo artist, and Robert Drivas as a young itinerant who becomes engrossed and eventually obsessed by the bizarre tales that Steiger spins about his colorful head-to-toe etchings.

But Ray Bradbury's stories are not sufficiently linked to make a plausible, if even engrossing film. It holds one's interest only a quarter way through, as Steiger wanders across a Southern farm country (circa 1933) seeking the mysterious woman whom he loved and let deface his body with grotesque images. Then it projects into the future, lapses back into the past and ends too melodramatically to make it anything other than a visual spectacle.

Steiger is rather good however. His age and accent change according to where he is in time. The actor has the courage to do outlandish roles, and his efforts, nudity notwithstanding, in "Illustrated Man" are of a higher calibre than "The Sergeant" and "No Way to Treat a Lady."

Except for the brief moments when the sinister aspect of their relationship unfolds, she brings the tattoos to life, and they act out the fantasy, the dream sequences are pretty boring.

I found it occasionally diverting, not having read the book, but even that trip into the bizarre is a circuitous route to confusion. Miss Bloom plays the Southern Belle with a penchant for skin art work in a superbly cool and regal way. But the film's only "kicks" come from Steiger's lurid description to the passing stranger of who she was, how they met, why she was possessed with "beautifying his body" and what happened to her.

The remainder of the expensive and oddball adventure story is pure decoration with no meaning. Bradbury fans may be disappointed. Steiger fans won't.

Job Experience For Students Asked

The director of a special vocational training program at Terra Nova High School in Pacifica appealed to businessmen for assistance in providing work experience for students Thursday.

Bernie Norton, head of the Jefferson High School District's only "distributive education" program, told chamber of commerce members he is seeking part-time positions for students in the co-operative work-study program.

"We wish to give the students an opportunity to relate work experience with classroom instruction," he said.

Purpose of the special program is to develop awareness of career opportunities in "the distribution and marketing of goods," Norton said.

"The distribution of goods and services presently occupies one-third of the work force in the United States," he said, "and there is a growing need for specialized training in this area."

Under the new cooperative program to be launched at Terra Nova, students will hold regular part-time jobs, and will function as "learning workers."

Norton said a number of "training stations" for the students are needed for both the summer session and the fall session at the high school.

Students participating will be paid the minimum wage by their employers, and will also receive class credit for the program.

He said the program has proved valuable in other areas as a means to "keep the kids in school."

"Students benefit directly from the program, and employers receive the assistance of the school in the training of their employees."

Norton said a high percentage of the students normally remain with their employers after graduation from high school.

'Low Wealth' Districts In New Marches

A number of low wealth school districts in California have followed the lead of Pacifica's Laguna Salada Elementary District in recent weeks, and taken their financial troubles directly to Sacramento, district spokesmen said this week.

Several "low wealth" districts in Santa Clara County have scheduled a "pilgrimage" to the capitol April 16, and a committee involving several low wealth districts in Los Angeles County is becoming "more and more active."

The California Teachers Association and the California Association of School Administrators are also asking each county superintendent of schools to organize support for AB 409 in their respective areas. However, this move does not include support for state-wide equalization, as advocated by the Pacifica School Finance Strategy Committee.

El Camino High Band Wins Big Nevada Tournament

The El Camino High School Stage Band of South San Francisco, under the direction of Ted

Marr, won its divisional trophy at the University of Nevada competition recently.

Bands from five western states participated in this contest and trophies were awarded to the outstanding band in each class according to the school enrollment.

The El Camino Band has won its divisional trophy for the past three years. In 1967 they were the Grand Trophy winners.

The band featured a number of soloists. Among them were Larry Mallarino playing "Tromology," a trombone solo, "Low Glow" featuring Tom Graf on string bass, and Shirley Cavallo, vocalist singing a special arrangement of "Blues for a Four String Guitar." Shirley was awarded a four year scholarship to the University of Nevada starting this fall.

The band recently attended a stageband festival at Tracy High School sponsored by the California Music Education Association. The highest award of the day was a command performance. El Camino received the four outstanding awards. For the next few weeks these Jazz Musicians will have a change of pace. They will be entering classical solo and ensemble festival, as well as concert band festivals throughout the bay area.

South San Francisco high school's stage band also took part in the festival. The Blue Knights for the second straight year received a divisional honorable mention. The school's combo took honors in its division.

34 of 39 From Westmoor Win Ribbons at Festival

Westmoor instrumentalists entered the competition at the Solo-Ensemble Festival held recently at the new Canada College in Redwood City.

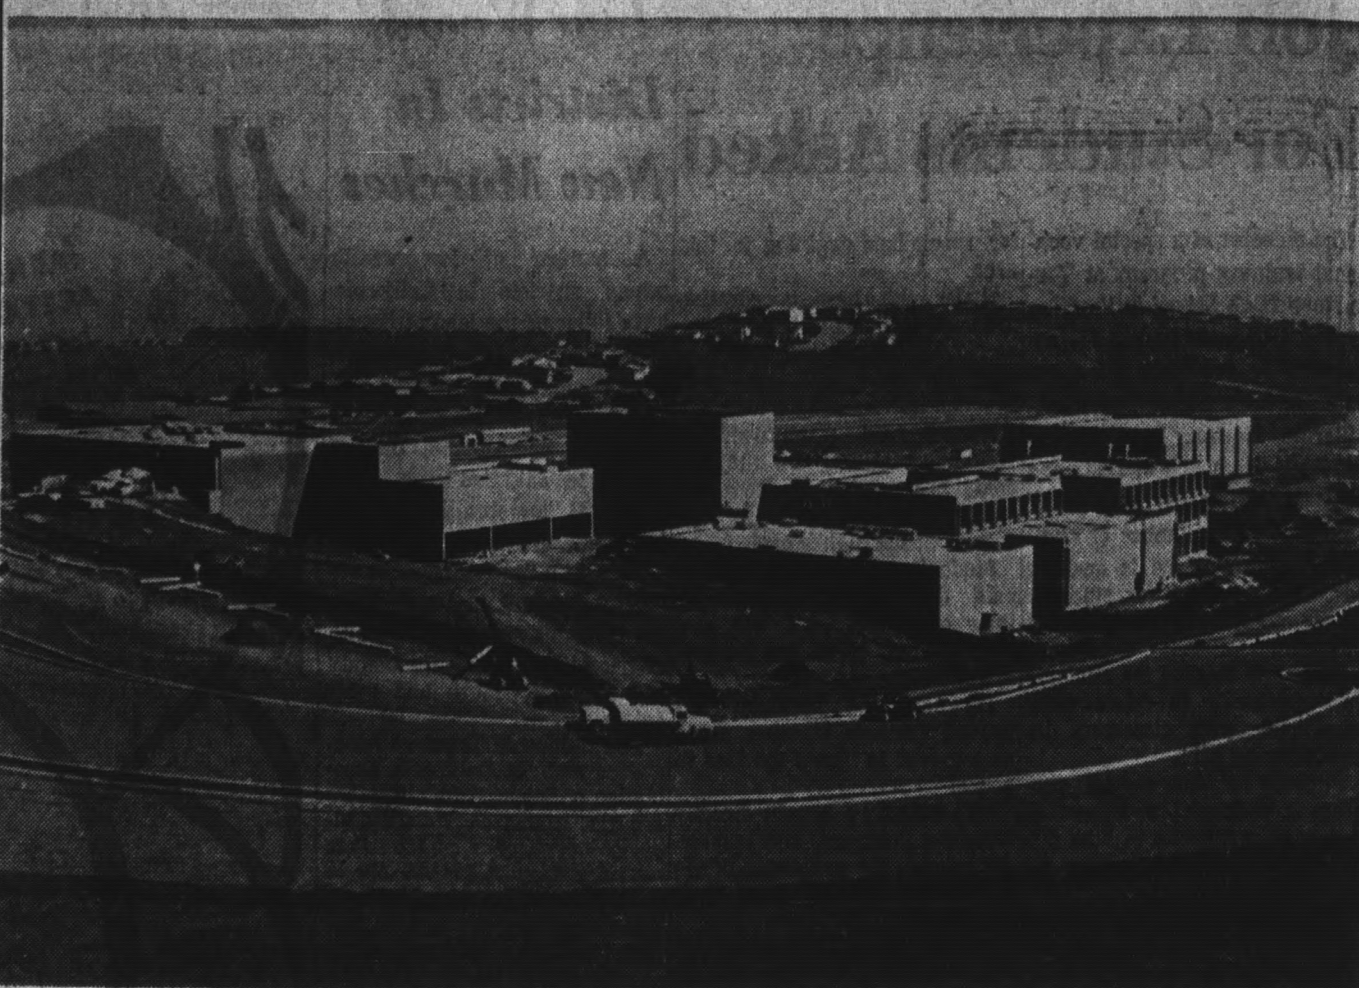

Some 34 of the 39 entrants come away with red or blue ribbons for excellent or superior ratings. Command Performance honors were awarded several members of the group.

Kathy O'Shaughnessy received a superior rating and a Command Performance for her flute solo as did Greg Adams for his trumpet solo and the trumpet trio composed of Dave Goldberg, Greg Adams and Mark Benson.

Also receiving superior ratings were Steven Clarfield on clarinet, Mark Benson on trumpet, Noelle Camozzi on flute and the senior flute quartet of Sheryl Jeppson, Hilary Reese, Kathy O'Shaughnessy and Noelle Camozzi.

Rated excellent were Diane Lipman, flute; Bill O'Shaughnessy on alto sax. Sheryl Jeppson on flute, Hilary Reese on flute, Jim Bari on clarinet, Elizabeth Williamson on piano,

FIRST PHASE of construction at the new Skyline College in North County is 86 per cent completed, according to contractors Engstrom & Nourse. The campus is located on the lee side of the coastal ridge in the Pacific Heights area of San Bruno.

Sponsored by the California Music Educators Association, the festival set a lively pace by conducting events in 8 rooms simultaneously. ed from the surrounding colleges rated each contestant and presented both written and verbal comments and criticism. Then the very best of the superior ratings were selected for a Command Performance in the auditorium for all to hear.

An opportunity to hear these young musicians will be given to the public on May 9 when both the Concert Band and the Stage Band will play at the annual music concert at Westmoor High School. At that time, most of those Westmoor students winning superior ratings can be heard.

San Brunans Plan New Street Map

A new San Bruno street map will be published by the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce this year. The new map will be available to local residents, business firms and organizations as well as aid in filling written requests for information on San Bruno from outside business firms and potential residents.

The Chamber board of directors approved the publication of a new map which will be printed by the Barclay Maps Company of San Jose. The firm specializes in printing city and county maps for chambers of commerce in California.

Larry Mobley, chamber executive, noted that local business listings will be sold on the map to help pay for the printing. Plans call for printing 5,000 copies of the map which is, according to Mobley, about a one-year supply.

"We went through 5,000 maps over the past 12 months," notes

Mobley, "and we are now down to our last dozen."

The Chamber office will contact all business firms who advertised in their annual "San Bruno Business Directory" and Chamber members about purchasing listings on the new map. Business listings will range from $7.50 to $12.50, depending upon whether the business is a directory advertiser, chamber member, or non-member.

San Bruno's Welcome Hostess distributes some 1,000 city maps for the Chamber to new residents of San Bruno each year and an additional 2,000 maps are mailed to persons requesting information on the community.

Local businesses, residents and organizations will be able to purchase the new street maps at the Chamber office for 10 cents apiece. The Chamber expects to have the new maps delivered to their office by June 1st.

Charge Dogs Left, Skeletons Found

A formal complaint has been filed against a former Pacifica resident accused of leaving four dogs to starve in her locked house on Miller Avenue.

Mrs. Carmen Bokorny, who presently resides in San Francisco has been charged with two counts of cruelty to animals, according to a spokesman for the Peninsula Humane Society.

A hearing has been scheduled April 21 in North County Municipal Court in South San Francisco.

The bodies and skeletons of four Doberman pinschers were found in Mrs. Bokorny's house at 635 Miller Avenue after neighborhood residents complained to police March 14.

New Building At Pacifica

New building continued at a brisk pace in Pacifica last month, with permits issued for construction totalling $577,646.

Of the 54 new permits issued, 15 were for new residences, 30 residential alterations, two new commercial buildings, one commercial addition and six miscellaneous structures.

Building for the month was considerably higher than the figure for March, 1968 ($454,530), but the total for the first nine months of the current fiscal year is lower than the figure for the same period last year.

Construction between July 1, 1967, and April 1, 1968, totaled $6,298,681. Permits issued between July 1, 1968 and April 1, 1969, totaled $4,766,270, according to Chief Building Inspector Philip W. Mayo.

S.S.F. Park Yo-Yo Meet

The South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department will sponsor local Yo-Yo tournaments on each of their playgrounds on Saturday, April 19, at 1 p.m.

Both boys and girls up to the age of 15 will be eligible and local playground winners will receive jacket patches for first, second and third places in both the boys and girls divisions. Each playground winner will then be eligible to compete at the City Championship Contest held at Orange Memorial Park on April 26, when trophies will be awarded to first place winners.

San Bruno Greyhound Agency Being Expanded

San Bruno's Greyhound Bus Line ticket agency has been greatly improved under the new ownership of Mrs. Robert J. Otto, a long-time San Bruno resident. Mrs. Otto acquired ownership of the local bus ticket agency in February and has been busy remodeling the local depot and expanding passenger ticket and package express services. Also scheduled for expansion is the Western Union telegraph service at the ticket agency office. At present, San Bruno has telegraph sending only but Mrs. Otto states that they expect to have their new telegraph receiving equipment installed shortly thereby giving San Bruno a full-service Western Union office located in the bus depot. The new agency owner is putting special emphasis on the improvement of their Greyhound Package Express service. Packages shipped from the local depot go anywhere Greyhound buses 24 hours a day. Local senders can ship C.O.D., collect, prepaid or charge. Heavy express packages are picked up four times a day with lighter packages placed aboard regular passenger buses throughout the day. The local Greyhound agency is open 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 7 a.m. until 12 noon on Saturday. Peninsula bus service to points north and south of San Bruno is scheduled every 15-minutes during the morning and evening commute hours and every 20 minutes during the remainder of the day. Commute books are also available.

CAPUCHINO BAND MACE DRUM MAJOR — Curt Lasher is pictured here in his full marching uniform, but will be playing his saxophone when Capuchino Band presents the annual spring concert, "Music Odyssey '69," April 18 and 19 in Capuchino High Auditorium. Curt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lasher of Millbrae, is a junior and the first mace drum major to lead Capuchino's championship marching band.

Medieval Veal Chops Still Winner

There is no other nation in the world that has such a variety of foodstuffs at its disposal or such contrasts in menu-making as the United States. Undoubtedly that is why there is really no national menu . . . instead, our meals are developed from a miscellany of overlapping regional culinary habits that have been handed down from family to family.

In a recent competition, one of the prize-winning recipes was "Medieval Veal Chops."

In describing his recipe, Jim McKenzie, a civil engineer from McLean, Virginia, reports: "My robust, Medieval-style veal chops have become my trademark. They are perfect for any age group, from our teen-agers to our seven-year-old. Only medieval foods and spices are used to produce these delicately smoked, spiced chops, which require no watching. A covered electric skillet or a heavy iron skillet, as used by my wife's medieval French ancestors, can be used. Potato chips are a perfect substitute for the very crisp potato slices used in the filling of the Medieval recipe."

MEDIEVAL VEAL CHOPS

2 1/2 pounds veal cutlet, cut 1/2-inch thick
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon white pepper
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup finely chopped onions
1/2 cup finely chopped dill pickles
1 cup crushed potato chips
5 slices smoked bacon
1 cup dairy sour cream
1 teaspoon dried dill weed

Pound cutlet to a thickness of 1/4 inch with the side of a mallet. Spread mustard evenly over cutlet; sprinkle with salt, pepper, and nutmeg. Spread onions, pickles, and potato chips evenly over meat. Roll cutlet and secure with heavy string in several places. Dust roll of meat with flour.

In an electric skillet or heavy iron skillet, fry bacon slices until bacon is crisp. Remove bacon, crumble, and reserve. Sauté veal roll quickly in bacon grease until golden on all sides (about 6-8 minutes). Cover tightly, and simmer 1 1/2 hours until meat is fork tender. remove meat to a heated platter.

Add sour cream, dill weed and crumbled bacon to the pan juices. Blend thoroughly with browned bits which stick to the bottom of the pan. Heat sour cream mixture but do not boil.

Remove string from roll of meat; cut into 1-inch chops. Surround chops with watercress and chutney-filled peach halves. Spoon hot sour cream sauce over each chop. Serves six persons.

Building an inheritance and early environment, most of the time Jim cooks for the fun of it. And, although his wife does most of the cooking at home, he's always happy to prepare his specialties for a company dinner. As a matter of fact, the McKenzie household is a cooking household . . . even the children love to cook their specialties!

Hearty Welcome for Spring With a Refreshing Jamaican Salad Bowl

Give a hearty welcome to spring at your house with a hearty "Jamaican Salad Bowl." It will bring a touch of the tropics to a luncheon party, a day of bridge-playing or a relaxed family dinner.

Everything about this salad spells refreshment. Chilled chunks of western iceberg lettuce, husky slices of banana and thin strips of ham or chicken are tossed with an exciting dressing created to enhance just such a combination. It's a creamy dressing enlivened by lime juice, sesame seeds, curry powder and mustard.

Should there be any dressing left over, simply store it covered in the refrigerator and use it later to enrich any number of other salads.

Never discard the outer leaves of western iceberg lettuce. For one thing, they make an ideal lining for salad bowls, whether they be large bowls as in "Jamaican Salad Bowl" or smaller ones for individual servings. They add crunchy texture to sandwiches, too, besides providing eye appeal with their crinkly edges. These outer leaves also supply extra flavor and moisture when cooked with green peas, green beans, carrots and other vegetables. And they are right at home in that popular standby, wilted lettuce salad.

Tempt your youngsters into eating more healthful, nutritious salads with the versatile banana, which goes well with almost every other food. Try placing halved bananas, spread generously with peanut butter thinned with a little milk, in crisp iceberg lettuce cups. Or mash together bananas and peanut butter and spread the mixture on lettuce "rafts" — thick crosswise slices of lettuce.

JAMAICAN SALAD BOWL
1 head western iceberg lettuce

3 large bananas
3 cups thin strips cooked ham or chicken or combination of both

Lime-Sesame Dressing
Rinse, core and drain lettuce thoroughly; chill in plastic lettuce crisper or disposable plastic bag. When ready to serve, cut or tear lettuce into bite-size chunks and turn into chilled salad bowl. Peel bananas. Cut into large diagonal slices or into longer fingers. Arrange banana and ham (or chicken) on lettuce. Toss with Lime-Sesame Dressing.

Makes 5 or 6 servings.

Lime-Sesame Dressing
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/4 teaspoon curry powder
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup rich milk
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
3 tablespoons lime juice
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

1 1/2 tablespoons sesame seeds double boiler. Stir in milk, egg and flour together in top of double boiler. Stir in milk, egg and mustard. Slowly stir in lime juice; mixture will thicken slightly. Cook over hot (not boiling) water 10 minutes, stirring often until mixture becomes thick and smooth. Remove from heat, add butter. Cool, then cover and refrigerate. Toast sesame seeds by stirring over moderate heat in skillet until golden. Add to dressing before serving. Dressing may be thinned slightly with cream, real mayonnaise or dairy sour cream. Makes about 1 1/2 cup dressing.

Try Curried Tuna-Fruit Salad Recipe

You can have subtle sophistication with hidden heartiness when you serve Curried Tuna-Fruit Salad. This recipe is perfectly practical and practically perfect for any luncheon occasion whether you are having special guests or simply feeding the family.

Large pieces of protein-rich tuna blend with pineapple chunks, cucumber, and cottage cheese. A touch of curry highlights the flavors and your choice of salad greens provides a crisp and colorful setting for the salad. An assortment of cheese, grapes, apple slices, and peach halves may be added for extra color and heartiness.

Tuna has many values to offer the homemaker. Nutritionally, tuna rates high as an easily digested, protein food and as a rich source of vitamins and minerals so necessary to growth and health. Versatility is one of the advantages of tuna because it can be served alone or combined with other foods such as eggs, rice, potatoes, macaroni products, or a wide variety of fruits and vegetables. It serves as an important ingredient in appetizers, salads, or hearty main dishes. Economy is another advantage of tuna since there is no waste in the compactly packed and compressed cans which assure value to the consumer.

Would you like to know more about tuna? The tuna industry has published an informative, full-color, consumer-oriented booklet filled with tested tuna recipes and an interesting account of how tuna is caught and processed. Tuna: As You Like It is available on request from: Tuna Research Foundation, Dept. BCF-68, Ferry Bldg., Terminal Island, California 90731.

2 red apples, cut into 24 wedges
1/2 cup seedless green grapes
1-3 cup peanuts
Mayonnaise or salad dressing

Drain tuna and break into large pieces. Combine pineapple, cottage cheese, cucumber, curry powder, and tuna. Chill. Place 2-3 cup tuna mixture on salad greens. Place 4 apple wedges around each serving. Top each apple wedge with a grape. Sprinkle salad with peanuts. Serve with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Makes 6 servings.

Roast Green Peppers Can Be Workout

Ever roast green peppers? Here's recipe.

Home-Roasted Peppers
Spaghetti with Meatballs
Salad Bowl

HOME-ROASTED PEPPERS
1 pound (4 large) green peppers
1/4 cup olive oil
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 garlic clove, peeled

Sliced cucumbers

Place peppers on a small cookie sheet. Broil on rack directly below high heat; with tongs turn often until blistered and charred — about 10 minutes; turn peppers stem side up so tops blister. At once place peppers in a brown paper bag; close tightly; allow to steam in bag for 15 minutes. Peel skin from peppers; halve and remove seeds and white membranes; slice lengthwise into about 1-inch wide strips. In a wide shallow container with a fork, beat together the oil, lemon juice and salt; halve garlic, smash halves slightly and add. Mix in peppers. Cover tightly and refrigerate 3 to 6 hours or overnight. Before serving remove garlic and allow peppers to stand at room temperature (so congealed oil will melt). Place peppers in serving dish; add cucumbers; drizzle marinade from peppers over cucumbers. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Two Arrested in D.C. Narcotics Crackdown

Two persons were arrested Tuesday afternoon and charged with possession of dangerous drugs and under the influence of a drug after they were seen lying on a sidewalk in front of the Town and Country Billiard Parlor in Daly City.

Broadmoor and Daly City police officers spotted Kathleen Ann Longway, 19, of 2400 Skyline Drive, Pacifica, and Norman E. Dean, 21, of 424 Hillside Boulevard, Daly City, lying dazed on the sidewalk shortly before noon, they stated.

Dean was found to have a plastic bag with a quantity of red capsules in it, police said.

SSF Yo-Yo Contest Set

The South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department will sponsor local Yo-Yo Tournaments on each of their playgrounds on Saturday at 1 p.m.

Both boys and girls up to the age of 15 will be eligible and local playground winners will receive jacket patches for first, second and third places in both the boys and girls divisions.

3 Arrested For Assaults

Three suspects have been arrested in connection with two kidnap-rapes in San Mateo over the past week-and-a-half, it was reported.

San Mateo police said that the suspects, all of them over the age of 18, were picked up on Friday afternoon and evening after an investigation into the two incidents.

Names, addresses and ages of the three were not released pending the expected apprehension of at least two others thought to have taken part.

The victims, both under the age of 18 (one of them was only 12), were reported to have been kidnapped and raped in San Mateo and then released near a park.

Soup and Sandwiches Served Scandinavian Style—Eyes Will Open

Each country boasts its own favorite soup. France has pot-au-feu and bouillabaisse; the Scotch, hodge-podge; Italy, minestrone; and United States, clam chowder. Traditionally served every Thursday night in Sweden, and generally regarded as the national dish is Arter med Flask, as the Swedes call it, a thick yellow pea soup with a good-sized slice of pork fat.

Our all-American version of pea soup is a bit different; we've shortened the steps for the on-the-go American home-maker by eliminating the presoaking process for the peas, using instead a ready-to-use can of green pea soup. For a creamier texture and an extra nutritional edge, fresh whole milk is used in place of water. Provone cheese is added for an extra smoky, outside-cooked flavor. When finished, this sizzling soup is garnished with croutons for an American rendition of pea soup that's fit for a Swedish king.

Our Scandinavian meal wouldn't be complete without Danish Smorrebrod, or open-faced sandwiches which are eaten for lunch in Denmark by folks of all ages from nine months to 90 years. Calling Smorrebrod (literally, buttered bread) a sandwich does it an injustice, for it is more and less—a single slice of bread heaped with everything between heaven and earth. What goes on top they call paalæg, which can be leftovers from the previous evening meal, slices of fine meat or fish, or an assortment of strong and mild cheeses.

We've created an American version of this adventuresome sandwich with a cottage cheese mixture that includes crushed pineapple, shredded carrots and chopped radishes, plus crisp lettuce leaves, and a parsley and olive garnish. In keeping with tradition we've retained the buttered slices of rye bread.

Eyes will open wide when you bring on this Scandinavian soup 'n' sandwich combo. Serve for a hearty lunch, or as a kind of natimat (night food) which is offered just before a party breaks up to make sure the guests go out into the cold and darkness well fortified.

½ cup shredded carrots
¼ cup chopped radishes

RAISED CORNSTICKS

1½ cups milk, scalded
1½ cups yellow cornmeal
3 tablespoons light brown sugar
2 teaspoons salt
¼ cup butter or margarine
½ cup warm water
1 package active dry yeast
2 eggs, slightly beaten
3½ cups unsifted regular flour

Off heat, into the scalded milk stir the cornmeal, sugar, salt and butter; cool to lukewarm. In a large warm bowl dissolve the yeast in the water; stir in lukewarm cornmeal mixture, eggs and half the flour; beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour to make a stiff dough. Turn into well greased cornstick pans, allowing about ¼ cup batter for each cornstick. Let rise in a warm draft-free place until doubled in bulk—about 45 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for about 30 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 21 large cornsticks—3 pans with places for 7 cornsticks in each. These cornsticks are chock-full of cornmeal and do not taste sweet.

LINGUINI WITH TURKEY SAUCE

¾ tablespoons butter
¾ cup instant flour
2 cans (10½ ounces) condensed chicken broth, undiluted
½ cup heavy cream
3 cups cubed cooked turkey
1 can (5 ounces) pimiento, drained and cut in large pieces
8 ounces linguini, cooked according to package directions

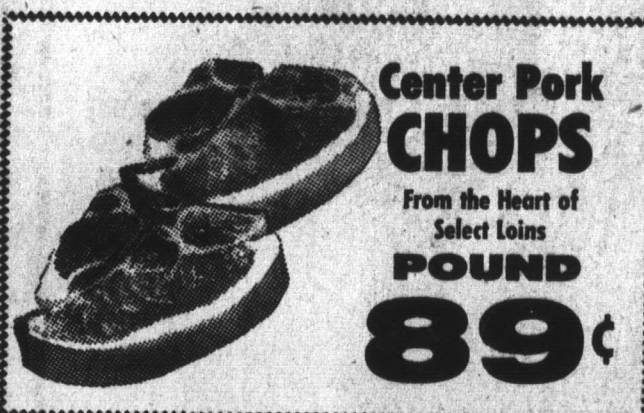

In a medium saucepan over low heat melt the butter; stir in the flour. Off heat, gradually stir in the broth keeping smooth. Over moderately low heat cook and stir until thickened and boiling; stir in the cream, turkey and pimiento; remove from heat. Turn the drained linguini into a glass baking dish (about 8 by 8 by 2 inches) or similar utensil. Pour turkey sauce over linguini. Cover tightly with foil. Bake in a 400-degree oven until hot and bubbling—about 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings. You may prepare this dish ahead and let it stand, covered, at room temperature for 1 hour before baking as directed. The plentiful sauce is a pale golden-brown color and on the pleasantly thin side.

Women Today Must Play Three Roles—But Much of the Work Is Eased

Three centuries ago John Dryden wrote of a versatile fellow who "in the course of one revolving moon was chemist, fiddler, statesman and buffoon." Nowadays, to contradict the ancient axiom that a "Jack-of-all-trades is master of none," women must often play the triple roles of homemaker, mother and hostess all rolled into one. It's fortunate indeed for these many busy souls that much of the work and effort has been taken out of cooking by a tremendous variety of convenience foods.

One of the very best of these convenience foods to keep in constant supply on the pantry shelf is canned salmon, which pleases the entire family, spares the budget and is easy on those Jack-of-all-trade women. It converts in seconds into a luncheon dish for hungry school children, for the road-weary father or for the casual entertaining of groups of any age.

A really good sandwich is hard to beat for any kind of luncheon food, and the imaginative cook, with a sandwich in mind and a can of salmon on her supply shelf, can enjoy the rewarding experience of inventing her own sandwich recipe from practically anything else on the condiment shelf or from a leftover in the refrigerator with most satisfactory and delicious results. Hot sandwiches are best at this season of the year. Precede them, if you wish, with a cup of soup, add a salad, a simple dessert and a beverage to complete a meal fit for all ages and every palate. And no matter what the occasion, serve them casually but attractively garnished — a simple spray of water cress, a gherkin or dill pickle, a gay radish rose or some cherry tomatoes, all or one contribute much to the appetite appeal of a hot sandwich luncheon, such as any one of the recipes which follow.

CURRIED SALMON SANDWICHES

Serves 8
1 1-pound can salmon
1 cup mayonnaise
2-3 cup finely chopped celery
½ cup sliced green onions, including tops
2 teaspoons curry powder
½ teaspoon salt or to taste

4 tablespoons sweet pickle relish
Dash of pepper
8 slices buttered toast, trimmed
Drain and flake salmon. Mix with mayonnaise, celery, green onions, curry powder, salt, pickle relish and pepper. Spread on pieces of toast. Cut each piece of toast in half diagonally and place on baking sheet. Bake in preheated 375-degree F. oven for 15 minutes. Serve hot with lemon wedges for garnish and, if desired, serve separate little bowls of mixed chopped egg white, egg yolks and green pepper, chopped peanuts and chopped cucumber. Let everyone select his own garnish.

BOILED SALMON AND CHEESE

Makes 12 triangles
1 7½-ounce can salmon, drained and flaked
¼ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon minced onion
Salt and pepper to taste
6 slices toast, cut into triangles
½ cup shredded cheddar cheese
Combine salmon, mayonnaise, onion, salt and pepper to taste. Mound mixture on toast triangles, sprinkle with cheese and broil under low heat until cheese melts. Serve hot.

SALMON CHEESE PUFF

Serves 4
6 slices bread, trimmed and cut into triangles
1 7½-ounce can salmon
¼ cup shredded cheddar cheese
2 eggs, slightly beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
Dash cayenne
1 teaspoon minced onion
½ cups rich milk
Line buttered 1½-quart baking dish with half the bread triangles. Drain salmon, reserving liquid, and flake salmon. Sprinkle salmon and cheese over bread and top with remaining bread triangles. Combine eggs, salt, paprika, cayenne, onion, milk and salmon liquid. Pour over ingredients in dish and let stand 30 minutes. Bake in preheated 350-degree F. oven for about 1 hour, or until well browned and puffed. Serve immediately.

SALMON SAUCEWICHES

7 ½-ounce can salmon
1 tablespoon horseradish
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¼ cup mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
8 slices hot buttered toast
½ pound cheddar cheese, shredded
Drain liquid from salmon into saucepan. Flake and add salmon and mix with horseradish, lemon juice, mayonnaise and salt and pepper. Stir over low heat until mixture is hot. Spread on 4 slices toast. Top with remaining toast, making 4 sandwiches. Melt cheese slowly over simmering water. Gradually stir in milk. Cook, stirring, until sauce is smooth. Pour over saucewiches and garnish with parsley or watercress. Makes four sandwiches.

SALMON FONDUE

1 tablespoon minced onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
3 tablespoons butter
1 pound can salmon
1 tablespoon flour
Salmon liquid plus milk to measure ½ cup
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
Salt and pepper to taste
¼ pound sharp cheddar cheese, diced
4 pre-split English muffins
Saute onion and green pepper in 2 tablespoons butter until tender. Drain salmon, reserving liquid, and flake salmon into butter mixture. Keep warm. In saucepan melt remaining butter, stir in flour and gradually stir in salmon liquid. Add mustard, salt and pepper and cook, stirring, until sauce is smooth and thickened. Add cheese and stir until cheese is melted. Toast and butter English muffins and place 2 halves, toasted side up, on serving plate. Top with salmon mixture and cover with sauce. Serves 4.

SALMON CHEESE VAUDOISE

Drain liquid from a 7½-ounce can salmon into a saucepan. Add ½ pound Swiss cheese, shredded and 1-3 cup milk or beer. Stir over low heat until cheese is melted and mixture is smooth. Stir in flaked salmon. Stir in 1 egg beaten with a bit of salt and pepper. Serve over hot buttered toast. Serves four.

Clear the Skin With Apples

From skin to skin: Since the highest concentration of Vitamin C in an apple is found in the peel, which contains three to five times as much as the flesh, eat your daily Washington apple with the skin on. The combination of fruit acid, infection-fighting Vitamin C, and the toxin-removing bulk of Washington apples is a natural "cosmetic." For your clean skin, eat the apple skin.

Motorist Praises 2 'Angels'

Two Daly City Hell's Angels were praised Sunday for their help in rescuing a Gilroy school teacher who suffered a broken leg in a remote area near La Honda.

Deputy Sheriff John G. Edmonds said the victim, James John Kropf, was hurt when he was pitched off of his motorcycle and hurtled 30 feet down a cliff, coming to rest on a ledge.

The scene was a mile and one-half off of Wurr Road on a rutted, uphill trail.

On the way, Edmonds said, he encountered the two Hell's Angels, whom he identified as Gerry Haver and Perry Smith. Because it was impossible to drive his patrol car on the muddy trail, the deputy said, Haver and Smith volunteered to try it on their motorcycles. They bogged down after only 100 yards, however. Leaving their motorcycles there they slogged the rest of the way on foot.

Meanwhile, Edmonds summoned a Coast Guard helicopter on his patrol car radio. When Haver and Smith finally got to the injured man they placed him on a litter lowered from the hovering helicopter. Kropf was flown to San Francisco Public Health Hospital.

"The difficult job of rescuing this man was greatly relieved by the assistance rendered by the two Hell's Angels," Edmonds wrote in his report.

'What Price Freedom?'

Sabbath Services will be conducted at Congregation B'nai Israel (Colma) on Friday, at 8:30 p.m. by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore and Cantor Henry Greenberg.

Rabbi Shore's sermon topic for that evening will be "What Price Freedom?"

The service will also observe Birthday Sabbath, when Sunday school children celebrating their birthdays in April will be called to the pulpit for a blessing and gift from the congregation.

To be honored are Steven Biro, Stuart Bilick, Murray Cleaner, Marian Fisher, Linda Kaufman, Jeffrey Klonoff, Ter-

THESE MEMBERS of the Daly City Community Chorus "sing out" their invitation for other members of the area to join them each Thursday. The group, led by Dennis Desjardins, rehearses each Thursday at Westmoor Park Clubhouse, 123 Edgemont Drive, at 8 p.m. (Post Photo)

PACIFICA POLICE CHIEF Neil Tremaine, center, received a big star and the keys to a new police station in ceremonies dedicating the new facility Friday. Presenting the keys to the new station, remodeled at a cost of approximately $50,000, was Mayor Nick Gust, left. Sheriff Earl Whitmore, right, was among the speakers at the dedication ceremony. The building, located directly behind city hall, was formerly the Laguna Salada Elementary School District bus maintenance depot. The city acquired the building through a trade arrangement with the school district.

ry Levinson, Stella Marcus, Jennifer Rosenfield, Melanie Ruffner, Karen Schwarzbach, Gary Tessler and Michael Tessler.

The children will be further honored at the Oneg Shabbat (social hour) following the service. On Saturday at 10 a.m. Jeffrey Klonoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Klonoff, will become Bar Mitzvah.

Federal Aid Funds Are Due Soon

Jefferson Union High School District will receive $66,541 in federal impacted aid funds within the next week, according to Congressman Pete McCloskey.

The grant is from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare under Public Law 874, which provides funds for schools hit by the "impact" of unusually large numbers of students whose parents are employed by federal installations, such as Hunters Point Naval Shipyard.

"The amount of this grant is a tribute to the Jefferson Administrators, particularly Superintendent Ed Morgan and Assistant Superintendent, Business, Glenn South," he said.

"It represents 50 per cent of Jefferson's total entitlement for the year, when most school districts in the country are getting only 35 per cent as a result of national budget cutbacks."

The Congressman said the amount of the grant indicated that the Jefferson District retains a chance to get the full 100 per cent of its PL 874 entitlement this year, while most school districts will be limited to 90 per cent at best.

"There is no high school in the country which is more heavily engaged in the battle to solve urgent urban and racial problems," he said.

The Frederick Burk Foundation, Daly City, also has been awarded a $128,416 grant for continued work in the "Upward Bound" student programs according to McCloskey.

The grant, which was awarded by the Office of Economic Opportunity, will permit 100 students to participate in the program during the coming year.

Upward Bound attempts to prepare and motivate deserving high school students toward a college career.

Students who are chosen for their academic potential participate in a full-time summer residential program on a college campus, after which they receive follow-up tutoring and counseling.

The program is part of the O.E.O. War on Poverty.

Cashier Cut By Glass In Holdup

A young drive-in theater cashier who accidentally slashed both her legs when she fell through a plate glass window in Daly City Thursday night, was reported in good condition.

Miss Irene Voorhies, 25, was trying to out-tug a gunman who grabbed the theater's cash box about 7:45 p.m. Thursday, when she lost her balance and crashed through the window enclosing her ticket booth at the Geneva Drive-In Theater.

Both Miss Voorhies' legs were badly cut and a tendon in her right leg was severed. A hospital spokesman said the victim was not considered to be in serious condition "but the injury is very painful."

2 Burglaries

Daly City police reported two burglaries occurred in the city over the past 24 hours.

Four motorcycles, of undetermined value, were stolen from the Souza Cycle Shop at 2141 Junipero Serra Boulevard last night after a back door was forced open.

The Sandy Cole apartment on Abbott Avenue was broken into yesterday and a color television, radio and some $400 in cash was taken.

A have heretofore been issued and $5,950,000.00 are now outstanding. $2,855,000.00 designated Series B have heretofore been issued and $2,835,000.00 are now outstanding.

Any bid not received in the office of said County Clerk at or prior to 10:00 o'clock A.M. of said day hereinabove specified may not legally be, and will not be, considered.

(The remaining $411,750.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will and is to be sold prior to Jan. 1, 1970.)

DATE: All of said bonds are dated JUNE 15, 1969.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually for the first year on JUNE 15, 1970, and semi-annually thereafter at the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds, except that no bond may bear more than one rate of interest or more than one coupon to evidence any interest payment. The interest rate or rates stated in the bid must be in multiples of 1/8 or 1/20 of one per cent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

PRINCIPAL AMOUNT	MATURITY DATES
$ 5,000.00	1971 to 1973, both inclusive;

$100,000.00	1996.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States, at the office of the County Treasurer of said County.

EXECUTION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said District. The bonds will be executed by the manual signature of at least one official authorized to execute said bonds. Said bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said District on MARCH 7, 1967, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said District, and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said District, subject to taxation by said District (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds to the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: ORRICK, HERRINGTON, ROWLEY & SUTCLIFFE, 405 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California 94104. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale, but not prior to the date of sale thereof.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County, and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of SAN MATEO CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT of San Mateo County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000.00, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said bid from loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail upon the return of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said District, or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

GALEN H. Schmidt, who lives on Wavecrest Drive in Daly City with his wife, Marilyn and young daughter Valerie, has been appointed assistant manager in charge of operations in First Western Bank's Mission Office.

RICHARD Russo of Daly City has been named manager of the Fisherman's Wharf branch of First Western Bank. A ten-year banking veteran, Russo lives on Sheffield Drive with his wife, Gael Ann, and their two daughters.

Bob McLennan Yo-Yo Champ

The Daly City Recreation Department announced that Bob McLennan of 167 Mripasa, Daly City, has been declared city-wide champion in the Yo-Yo Contest.

Bob represented Westmoor Park in the city-wide contest. Along with the city-wide honors, Bob is eligible to compete in the Regional Finals to be held on May 3 in San Jose.

Bob was one of a total of 279 eager yo-yo enthusiasts who competed in the Official Duncan Yo-Yo Contest sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department on local playgrounds the week of March 24.

The city-wide championship, was held March 27 at Westmoor High School.

D.C. Boy, 7, Is Injured

A seven-year-old Daly City boy was hit and dragged several feet by a car as he rode his small bicycle on Oakmont Avenue.

An unidentified pedestrian removed seriously injured Sean Galway, of 18 Park Manor Drive, from under the car shortly after the 5 p.m. accident.

The boy was rushed to nearby Mary's Help Hospital where he was reported in satisfactory condition this morning with multiple lacerations and friction burns of the elbows and shoulder. He was placed in the Intensive Care Unit for observation, a hospital spokesman said.

According to police, Sean was struck by a car driven by George Flynn, 40, of 1015 South Mayfair, near the corner of Oakmont drive and Wildwood Avenue.

Bandit Hits Coast Store

An armed robber held up the Speedy Seven-Eleven store at Clarendon and Lakeside in Pacifica Sunday night, and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash, police reported.

Officers said the bandit, described as a caucasian male, five-feet, ten-inches tall and weighing approximately 200 pounds, entered the market while clerk Ronald Jacob was alone on duty.

The robber walked behind a magazine rack, then approached Jacob with a small blue steel revolver in his hand, police said.

The bandit fled on foot after threatening Jacob and demanding the cash register receipts.

The clerk handed over a number of bills from the register, but the amount lost has not been determined.

He said the money represented a "normal day's receipts."

Daly City Home Is Broken Into

The John J. Chiatello home on Bellevue Avenue in Daly City was broken into Saturday and some clothing, watches, a radio and an undetermined amount of cash stolen.

Church Wins OK For Pacifica Site

Pacifica planning commissioners approved an application to allow construction of a church at a site on Inverness Drive last week.

By an unanimous vote, commissioners approved the application of the Rev. David Donnelly in behalf of Westside Baptist Church for construction of the new building south of San Andreas School on Inverness.

The parcel is located within a P-D (planned development) zone.

Commissioners denied the application of Dennis Burrow in behalf of Herb West for a zoning change within the Fairmont Planned Community.

The applicant presented plans for a "Speedy Mart" store to be located on Gateway Drive adjacent to a service station.

The parcel is within a planned development zone. The planning commission vote was unanimous.

Action on the application of William Buchan on behalf of Henry Doelger Builders, Inc., for a variance to allow a reduced setback on four lots on Beaumont Avenue in the Fairmont Subdivision was delayed.

The applicant is seeking a variance to construct houses on the lots without allowing any setback. The city's zoning ordinance calls for a setback of 20 feet on each lot.

Hilly terrain in the area was given as the reason for the variance request.

From thousands of dealers nominated for the 1968 awards, their two San Jose stores were winners in the department store competition. In addition, their store at Westgate Shopping Center, San Jose, California, won the Certificate of Distinction No. 1 in the specialty store division.

C. E. Blair, president of McDonald's, received the telegram from the Brand Names Foundation.

To be nominated as a Brand Name Store, a branded line manufacturer must nominate a store on the basis of carrying branded lines and on its general standing in a community. After nomination, the store must submit a presentation representing their brand advertising, merchandising, sales training, customer services, and civic participation. A panel of top executives from the previous year's winners select the Brand Name Retailer-of-the-Year in each category.

Store managers John B. MacDonald and Robert E. Mudd, along with other company officials, will be honored at the annual Brand Names Awards Banquet, tomorrow at the Americana Hotel in New York.

Winners from all over the nation will be meeting with manufacturers, retailers, media and advertising executives in workshops and meetings and will be guests of honor at a full round of entertainment events.

D.C. Man Is Stabbed

A young Daly City man was stabbed April 8 during an argument in a billiard parlor, police reported, and an escapee from the San Mateo County Honor Camp was arrested and charged with the assault.

Scott Ghilarducci, 19, of 1280 Sullivan Avenue, was taken to Mary's Help Hospital for treatment of a stab wound following an altercation at Town and Country Billiards on San Pedro Road about 8:30 p.m.

Ghilarducci was released after treatment for a "puncture wound" in the back.

Lindell Jeffers, 19, address unknown, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon, resisting arrest, concealing a deadly weapon and being an escapee.

Jeffers, who was serving a robbery sentence, escaped from the honor camp last week, according to police.

Police said the cause of the argument which precipitated the stabbing incident was not determined.
